Suspension, revocation or variation of delegation

(4) The Superintendent may, without prior notice, suspend, revoke or vary, any delegation made by the Superintendent under this section.

Suspension, revocation or variation of subdelegation

(5) Where a delegate of the Superintendent subdelegates a power, function or duty under this section, the Superintendent or the delegate of the Superintendent may, without prior notice, suspend, revoke or vary the subdelegation.

Continued exercise of power by Superintendent

(6) The Superintendent may, after the delegation of a power, function or duty under this section, continue to exercise the power, function or duty delegated.

(7) Where a delegate of the Superintendent subdelegates a power, function or duty under this section, the Superintendent and the delegate of the Superintendent may continue to exercise the power, function or duty subdelegated.

Decisions and Exemptions

Terms, conditions and application of decisions

15. (1) Subject to any requirements of Nunavut securities laws, a decision of the Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent

- (a) may be made subject to terms, conditions, restrictions and requirements, or any of them; and
- (b) may be of general or specific application and may be made applicable to classes, categories or subcategories of persons, securities, trades, distributions or transactions.

Revocation or variation of Superintendent's decision

(2) Subject to any requirements of Nunavut securities laws, the Superintendent may, if the Superintendent considers that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so,

- (a) revoke or vary his or her decision; or
- (b) impose new terms, conditions, restrictions and requirements on the decision.

Revocation or variation of delegate's decision

(3) Subject to any requirements of Nunavut securities laws, a delegate of the Superintendent may, if the delegate of the Superintendent considers that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so,

- (a) revoke or vary his or her decision; or
- (b) impose new terms, conditions, restrictions and requirements on the decision.

Action on application or own initiative

(4) The Superintendent or delegate of the Superintendent may take action under subsection (2) or (3) respectively on his or her own initiative or on application by a person affected by the decision.

Exemption from securities laws

16. (1) If the Superintendent considers that it would not be prejudicial to the public interest, the Superintendent may, by order, exempt a person, security, trade, distribution or transaction from all or any provisions of Nunavut securities laws.

Order on application or own initiative

(2) The Superintendent may make an order under subsection (1) on the Superintendent's own initiative or on application by an interested person.

PART 3

PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

Service, Admissibility and Non-compellability

Service on Superintendent

17. Service of a record on the Superintendent is properly effected by serving the record on a person authorized by the Superintendent to accept service on behalf of the Superintendent.

Sending, delivering or serving records

18. (1) Unless otherwise provided by Nunavut securities laws, a record that is required to be sent, communicated or delivered to or served on any person under those laws may be sent, communicated or delivered to or served on that person

- (a) personally;
- (b) by prepaid mail;
- (c) by electronic means; or
- (d) as prescribed.

Address

(2) A record referred to in subsection (1) sent to a person by prepaid mail or by electronic means shall be sent to that person

- (a) at the latest address known for that person by the sender of the document; or
- (b) at the address for service in Nunavut filed by that person with the Superintendent.

Deemed service

(3) A record referred to in subsection (1) sent to a person by prepaid mail is deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to be served on that person on the seventh day after the record is mailed.

Records returned

(4) If a record referred to in subsection (1) is sent to a person by prepaid mail and is returned on two successive occasions because the person cannot be found, then there is no further requirement to send any further records to that person until that person notifies the sender in writing of the person's new address.

Admissibility of certified statements

19. A statement about

- (a) the registration or non-registration of a person,
- (b) the filing or non-filing of a record,
- (c) the date the facts upon which any proceeding is based first came to the knowledge of the Superintendent, or
- (d) any other matter, person or record,

purporting to be certified by the Superintendent is, without proof of the office or signature of the person certifying, admissible in evidence in any action, proceeding or prosecution under Nunavut securities laws.

Evidence from bank officials

20. Despite subsection 51(3) of the Evidence Act, the Superintendent may, by order, summon a bank or an officer of a bank, in any investigation or proceeding under Nunavut securities laws,

- (a) to produce records, property or things, the contents of which can be proved under section 30 of the Evidence Act; or
- (b) to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transaction and accounts contained in the records, property or things.

Persons not compellable witnesses

21. (1) The Superintendent, and any individual who is or has been an employee in the public service or an appointee or agent of the Superintendent,

- (a) is not a compellable witness in a court proceeding, and
- (b) may not be compelled to produce or give evidence in any court proceeding, with respect to information, records, property or things obtained or acquired by

- (c) the Superintendent in the exercise of his or her powers, functions or duties as Superintendent, or
- (d) that individual in the exercise of his or her powers, functions and duties under Nunavut securities laws.

Consent of Superintendent to giving of evidence

(2) An individual referred to in subsection (1) shall not, without the consent of the Superintendent, give evidence or produce evidence in any court proceeding to which the Superintendent is not a party, with respect to information, records, property or things obtained or acquired by that individual in the exercise of his or her powers, functions or duties under Nunavut securities laws

Definition of "court proceeding"

(3) In this section, "court proceeding" means a proceeding, other than a criminal proceeding, before a judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator, umpire or other officer or person having by law or by the consent of parties authority to hear, receive and examine evidence.

Witness not excused on grounds of possible incrimination or punishment

22. (1) No person summoned to give evidence or to produce a record, property or thing under Part 4 or Part 6 is excused from doing so on the ground that the evidence, record, property or thing might

- (a) tend to incriminate the person; or
- (b) subject the person to punishment under Nunavut securities laws or tend to establish that person's liability
 - (i) in a civil proceeding at the instance of the Government of Nunavut or any other person, or
 - (ii) to prosecution under any enactment, an enactment of another Canadian jurisdiction or an enactment of Canada.

Prohibition on use of evidence to incriminate witness

(2) No evidence given or record produced by a witness in response to a summons may be used to incriminate that witness in a prosecution for an offence under Nunavut securities laws or any other enactment, except in a prosecution for or proceeding in respect of perjury or the giving of contradictory evidence.

Verification

23. The Superintendent may require any information, record, property or thing produced or provided to, or obtained by, the Superintendent to be verified by affidavit or other means.

Treatment of Information

Information sharing

24. (1) The Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent may provide information to and receive information from

- (a) an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority or its delegate;
- (b) an entity performing, in a foreign jurisdiction, any power, function or duty similar to the Superintendent;
- (c) a financial regulatory authority, an exchange, a self-regulatory organization, a recognized entity, a professional regulatory body or organization, a law enforcement agency, a quotation and trade reporting system, a clearing agency, or a government or a governmental authority in another Canadian jurisdiction or in a foreign jurisdiction; and
- (d) any person or entity that provides services to the Superintendent.

Information sharing arrangements

(2) The Superintendent may enter into an arrangement or agreement for the purposes of subsection (1).

Confidentiality and non-disclosure

(3) Information received by the Superintendent under this section is confidential and shall not be disclosed except when authorized by the Superintendent.

Section prevails

(4) This section prevails despite the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act and any information received by the Superintendent under this section is exempt from disclosure under that Act.

Confidentiality and public disclosure of records

25. Records in the possession of the Superintendent must be held in confidence or disclosed to the public in accordance with this Act.

Filing and inspection of records

26. (1) Where Nunavut securities laws require that records be filed, and do not specify where or with whom the records are to be filed, the filing shall be effected by depositing the records with the Superintendent and all records so filed shall, subject to subsection (2), be made available for public inspection during normal business hours.

Records held in confidence

(2) The Superintendent may hold records or any class of records in confidence if the Superintendent considers that the records disclose intimate financial, personal or other information, and that the desirability of not disclosing the information, in the interests of any person affected, outweighs the desirability of adhering to the principle of public disclosure.

Provisions prevail

27. Sections 25 and 26 prevail despite the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act and any records referred to in those sections are exempt from disclosure under that Act.

PART 4

INVESTIGATIONS

Order for production

28. (1) The Superintendent may order a market participant or a former market participant specified or described in the order

- (a) to provide information, and
- (b) to produce records, property or things, specified or described in the order that are or may be in the market participant's or former market participant's custody, possession or direct or indirect control.

Contents of order

- (2) An order made under subsection (1) may
- (a) specify the location at which and the person to whom the information, records, property or things shall be provided or produced; or
 - (b) prescribe the time within which, or the intervals in respect of which, the information, records, property or things shall be provided or produced

Confidentiality of production orders

29. An order made under subsection 28(1) is confidential and shall not be disclosed by any person, except

- (a) to the market participant or former market participant specified or described in the order;
- (b) to the market participant's or former market participant's counsel; or
- (c) to any other person
 - (i) with the consent of the Superintendent, or
 - (ii) to the extent reasonably necessary to comply with the order.

Investigation orders

30. (1) If the Superintendent considers it expedient, the Superintendent may order an investigation into any matter

- (a) for the administration of Nunavut securities laws;
- (b) for the regulation of the capital markets in Nunavut;
- (c) for the administration of extra-territorial securities laws or securities laws of a foreign jurisdiction; and
- (d) for the regulation of capital markets in another Canadian jurisdiction or in a foreign jurisdiction.

Order to specify scope

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall specify the scope of the investigation.

Conduct of investigation

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Superintendent may conduct the investigation or may, in writing, appoint another person for that purpose.

Scope of investigation

31. (1) The Superintendent, or a person appointed to make an investigation under subsection 30(3), may investigate, inquire into and examine in relation to a person who is the subject of the investigation

- (a) the affairs of that person, including
 - (i) trades, communications, negotiations, transactions, investigations, loans, borrowing or payments to, by, on - behalf of, or relating to or in connection with the person, and

- (ii) records kept and property and things owned, acquired or alienated in whole or in part by the person or by any other person acting on behalf of or as agent for the person;
- (b) the assets at any time held, the liabilities, debts, undertakings and obligations at any time existing, the financial or other conditions at any time prevailing in or relating to or in connection with the person; and
- (c) any relationship that may at any time exist or have existed between the person and any other person by reason of investments, commissions promised, secured or paid, interests held or acquired, the loaning or borrowing of money, securities or other property, the transfer, negotiation or holding of securities, interlocking directorates, common control, undue influence or control or any other relationship.

Examination of records, property or things

- (2) The Superintendent, or a person appointed to make an investigation under subsection 30(3), may examine any records, property or things whether they
- (a) are in the custody or possession of or under the direct or indirect control of the person whose affairs are subject to investigation; or
 - (b) are in the custody or possession of or under the direct or indirect control of any other person.

Investigative powers

32. (1) The Superintendent, or a person appointed to make an investigation under subsection 30(3), has the same powers as are vested in the Nunavut Court of Justice for the trial of civil actions

- (a) to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses;
- (b) to compel witnesses to give evidence under oath or otherwise; and
- (c) to compel witnesses to produce records, property and things.

Failure to attend, answer or produce records

(2) The failure or refusal of a person summoned as a witness under subsection (1) to attend, to answer questions, or to produce records, property or things in the person's custody or possession, or under the person's direct or indirect control, makes the person, on application to the Nunavut Court of Justice by the Superintendent, liable to be committed for contempt by the Nunavut Court of Justice as if the person were in breach of an order or judgment of that court.

Failure to comply

(3) No person shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with a summons issued under subsection (1).

Representation by counsel

(4) A person giving evidence at an investigation under section 30 may be represented by counsel.

Right of entry and examination

33. A person making an investigation under section 30 may

- (a) enter the business premises of a person named in the investigation order or of any registrant or person recognized under Part 7 during business hours;
- (b) examine records, property or things at the premises;
- (c) require a person at the premises to produce information, records, property or things that are in the custody or possession or under the direct or indirect control of the person;
- (d) copy records at the premises; and
- (e) on giving a receipt, remove from the premises records, property or things.

Court application for entry and search order

34. (1) On application by the Superintendent, the Nunavut Court of Justice may make an order authorizing a person named in the order to

- (a) enter and search any building, receptacle or place; and
- (b) seize any records, property or things found in the building, receptacle or place.

Grounds for order

(2) The Nunavut Court of Justice may make an order under subsection (1) on being satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe that there may be records, property or things that reasonably relate to an order made under section 30 in the building, receptacle or place specified in the order.

Application brought without notice

(3) An application for an order under subsection (1) may be made ex parte and heard in the absence of the public, unless the court otherwise directs.

Entry, search and seizure

(4) On production of the order made under subsection (1), the person named in the order may enter the building, receptacle or place specified in the order, and may search for and seize any records, property or things described in the order.

Access to and return of material seized or obtained

35. Any record, property or thing seized or obtained under this Part must

- (a) be made available for inspection and copying by the person from whom it was seized or obtained, if practicable; and
- (b) be returned to the person from whom it was seized or obtained when

- (i) retention is no longer necessary for the purposes of an investigation, examination, proceeding or prosecution under Nunavut securities laws, or
- (ii) the Superintendent so orders.

Confidentiality of investigation and disclosure of information

36. (1) Any record, property or thing and all information or evidence obtained under this Part is confidential and shall not be disclosed by any person except

- (a) to a person's counsel;
- (b) where authorized by the Superintendent; or
- (c) as otherwise permitted by Nunavut securities laws

Section prevails

(2) This section prevails despite the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act and any information, evidence or records referred to in this section are exempt from disclosure under that Act.

PART 5

RECEIVERS, RECEIVER-MANAGERS, TRUSTEES AND LIQUIDATORS

Appointment Criteria

Application

37. (1) The Superintendent may apply to the Nunavut Court of Justice for the appointment of a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator of all or any part of the property and affairs of a person.

Appointment

(2) On an application under subsection (1), the court may appoint a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator if satisfied that the appointment is

- (a) in the best interests of the person's creditors;
- (b) in the best interests of other persons whose property is in the possession or under the control of the person in respect of whom the application is made;
- (c) in the best interests of security holders, subscribers to or clients of the person in respect of whom the application is made; or
- (d) appropriate for the administration of Nunavut securities laws.

Application brought without notice

(3) An application under subsection (1) may be made ex parte if the court considers it appropriate to do so in the circumstances.

Authority of Court Appointees

Application of sections 39 to 47

38. Sections 39 to 47 apply to a person appointed under section 37 or 78, unless another enactment governs the matters described in sections 39 to 47, in which case that enactment prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.

Authority of appointees

39. A receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator appointed by the court under section 37 or 78

- (a) has all necessary authority to carry out the powers, functions and duties of the appointment in accordance with the court order and this Part;
- (b) is appointed with respect to the person, property and affairs of the person named in the court order, whether the property is held in trust, owned or held in some other capacity, unless the order provides otherwise; and
- (c) shall comply with the terms and conditions of the court order.

Authority of receiver

40. (1) A receiver appointed under section 37 or 78 may, subject to the rights of secured creditors,

- (a) receive income from the property and affairs of the person named in the order and pay liabilities in respect of the property and affairs; and
- (b) realize the security of the person on whose behalf the receiver is appointed.

Cessation of authority of person in respect of whom order is made

(2) When an order is made appointing a receiver, the person in respect of whom the order is made ceases to have authority and may not exercise any powers in respect of the income from the property or affairs for which the receiver is appointed, except as directed by the court or the receiver.

Authority of receiver-manager

41. (1) A receiver-manager appointed under section 37 or 78 may take control of the property and administer the affairs of the person in respect of whom the court order is made, and

- (a) with respect to an individual, has all the authority of the individual to administer the property and manage the individual's affairs;
- (b) with respect to a corporation, has all the authority of the shareholders and directors of the corporation to administer the property and manage the corporation's affairs; and
- (c) has any other authority provided for in the order appointing the receiver-manager.

Lack of authority of person

(2) When an order is made appointing a receiver-manager of the property or affairs of a person

- (a) in the case of an individual, the individual has no authority to and may not exercise any powers in respect of the individual's property and affairs for which the order is made, and
- (b) in the case of a corporation, the shareholders and the directors of the corporation have no authority to and may not exercise any powers in respect of the corporation, except as directed by the court or by the receiver-manager.

Authority of trustee

42. (1) A trustee appointed under section 37 or 78 shall hold in trust the property specified in the court order, subject to the terms of the order.

Cessation of authority of person in respect of whom order is made

(2) When an order is made appointing a trustee, the person in respect of whom the order is made ceases to have authority and may not exercise any power in respect of the property subject to the trust, except as directed by the court or the trustee.

Authority of liquidator

43. (1) A liquidator appointed under section 37 or 78 shall wind up the affairs of the person in respect of whom the liquidator is appointed in accordance with the court order.

Cessation of authority of person in respect of whom order is made

(2) When an order is made appointing a liquidator, the person in respect of whom the order is made ceases to have authority and may not exercise any powers in respect of the affairs to be wound up, except as directed by the court or the liquidator.

Termination of appointments

44. (1) A receiver or a receiver-manager appointed under section 37 or 78 remains in office until

- (a) the appointment is revoked by the Nunavut Court of Justice;
- (b) the receiver or receiver-manager winds up the affairs of the person in respect of whom the order is made in accordance with a direction of the Nunavut Court of Justice; or
- (c) a liquidator is appointed to wind up the affairs of the person.

Term of office

(2) A liquidator appointed under section 37 or 78 remains in office until the appointment is revoked by the Nunavut Court of Justice or the affairs of the person in respect of whom the order is made are wound up.

Fees

45. The fees charged and the expenses incurred by a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator appointed under section 37 or 78 in respect of the exercise of powers pursuant to the appointment shall be in the discretion of the Nunavut Court of Justice.

Application for directions

46. (1) A receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator appointed under section 37 or 78 may apply to the Nunavut Court of Justice for directions on any matter and the court may

- (a) give directions;
- (b) if required, declare the rights of parties before the court; and
- (c) make any further order it considers necessary.

Revocation of appointment

(2) The Nunavut Court of Justice may at any time revoke an appointment made under section 37 or 78 and appoint another receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator in the place of the receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator.

Filing in land registry

47. (1) The Superintendent may send a notice to the Registrar of Land Titles that proceedings are being or are about to be taken under this Part that may affect land belonging to the person referred to in the notice, and may amend or revoke the notice as the circumstances require.

Recording notice

(2) On receipt of the notice, the Registrar of Land Titles shall record the notice in the general register, and where a certificate of title has been issued for any land specified in the notice, make a memorandum of the notice on the certificate of title.

Effect of recording notice

(3) A notice recorded or memorandum made under subsection (2) has the same effect as the registration or recording of a certificate of pending litigation or a caveat.

PART 6

REVIEWS, PROCEDURAL MATTERS, ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS, APPEALS AND DECLARATIONS

Review of Decisions of Delegates of the Superintendent

Review by Superintendent

48. (1) The Superintendent may, on the Superintendent's own initiative, review a decision of a delegate of the Superintendent, other than an extra-territorial decision.

Notice

(2) If the Superintendent intends to conduct a review on the Superintendent's own initiative, the Superintendent shall, within 30 days after the date of the decision to be reviewed, notify the following persons of that intention:

- (a) the person who made the decision;

- (b) any person directly affected by the decision.

Request for review

49. (1) A person directly affected by a decision of a delegate of the Superintendent, other than an extra-territorial decision, may request and is entitled to a review of the decision by the Superintendent.

Notice

- (2) The request for a review shall be made
 - (a) by sending notice to the Superintendent within 30 days after the date on which the person was sent notice of the decision; and
 - (b) by sending a copy of the request to the person who made the decision.

When decisions take effect

50. A decision of a delegate of the Superintendent takes effect immediately despite a request for a review or the giving of notice by the Superintendent of the intention to conduct a review, unless the delegate who made the decision or the Superintendent suspends the decision pending the review.

Nature of a review

51. The Superintendent may decide the nature and extent of the review, and may conduct it as

- (a) a partial or full hearing or rehearing of the matter; or
- (b) a documents-only review.

Decision after a review

52. After a review, the Superintendent may confirm, vary or revoke the decision reviewed and in doing so may

- (a) make any decision the delegate of the Superintendent could have made; and
- (b) make any other decision that the Superintendent may make under Nunavut securities laws.

Procedural Matters

Witnesses and evidence

53. (1) For the purpose of preparing for or conducting a review or hearing under this Act, the Superintendent has the same powers as are vested in the Nunavut Court of Justice for the trial of civil actions

- (a) to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses;
- (b) to compel witnesses to give evidence under oath or otherwise; and
- (c) to compel witnesses to produce records, property and things.

Failure to attend, answer or produce records

- (2) The failure or refusal of a person summoned as a witness under subsection (1)

to attend, to answer questions or to produce records, property or things that are in the person's custody or possession, or under the person's direct or indirect control, makes that person, on application to the Nunavut Court of Justice by the Superintendent, liable to be committed for contempt by the Nunavut Court of Justice as if that person were in breach of an order or judgment of that court.

Application of Rules of Nunavut Court of Justice

(3) The Rules of the Nunavut Court of Justice with respect to compelling the attendance of witnesses, including the provisions relating to the payment of conduct money, apply to reviews and hearings conducted by the Superintendent or by a person appointed by the Superintendent under this Act.

Failure to comply

(4) No person shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with a summons issued under subsection (1).

Evidence taken outside Nunavut

- 54. (1) The Superintendent may apply to the Nunavut Court of Justice for
- (a) an order appointing a person to take the evidence of a witness outside Nunavut for use in an investigation or a proceeding before the Superintendent; and
 - (b) a letter of request from the court directed to the judicial authorities of the jurisdiction in which a witness is located, requesting the issuance of such process as is necessary to compel the person to attend before the person appointed under paragraph (a) to give evidence on oath or otherwise and to produce records, property or things relevant to the subject matter of the investigation or proceeding.

Practice and procedure

- (2) The practice and procedure relating to
- (a) an appointment under this section,
 - (b) the taking of evidence by a person appointed under this section, and
 - (c) the certifying and return of the appointment,
- is, to the extent possible, to be the same as the practice and procedure governing similar matters in civil proceedings under the Rules of the Nunavut Court of Justice.

Admissibility of evidence

(3) Unless the court otherwise directs, the making of an order under subsection (1) does not determine whether evidence obtained as a result of the order is admissible in a review or hearing before the Superintendent.

Power to obtain evidence outside Nunavut

(4) Nothing in this section limits any power that the Superintendent has to obtain evidence outside Nunavut by any other means, including under any other enactment or by operation of law.

Evidence taken in Nunavut for other securities regulatory bodies

(5) Where

- (a) a body or authority is empowered by the laws of a jurisdiction other than Nunavut to regulate trading in securities or to administer or enforce laws respecting trading in securities in that jurisdiction, and
- (b) the Nunavut Court of Justice is satisfied that a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction in that jurisdiction has properly authorized that body or authority to obtain testimony and evidence in Nunavut from a witness located in Nunavut,

the Nunavut Court of Justice may

- (c) order the attendance of the witness for the purpose of being examined,
- (d) order the production of any record, document or thing referred to in the order, and
- (e) give directions as to the time and place of the examination and all other matters with respect to the examination as the Nunavut Court of Justice considers appropriate.

Scope of order

(6) In making an order under subsection (5), the court may order that the examination of the witness

- (a) be before a person appointed in accordance with the directions of, and
- (b) be carried out in the manner provided for by, the court or tribunal of the jurisdiction that authorized the obtaining of the testimony and evidence in Nunavut.

Joint reviews, hearings and location

55. (1) The Superintendent may hold a review or hearing in or outside Nunavut alone or in conjunction with one or more extra-territorial securities regulatory authorities.

Consultation

(2) The Superintendent may consult with any member of an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority that is taking part in the joint review or joint hearing.

Rules of evidence

56. (1) The Superintendent

- (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings;

- (b) has the power to determine the admissibility, relevance and weight of any evidence;
- (c) may determine the manner in which evidence is to be admitted; and
- (d) may determine any question of law or fact.

Evidence under oath or by affirmation

(2) The Superintendent may require witnesses to give evidence under oath or by affirmation.

Administration of oath or affirmation

(3) The Superintendent may administer an oath or affirmation for the purpose of receiving evidence.

Conduct of reviews, hearings and inquiries

57. Subject to this Act, all matters respecting the initiation of hearings, reviews or inquiries, and other matters relevant to the conduct of hearings, reviews and inquiries, including pre-hearing disclosure, shall be dealt with in accordance with the rules.

Administrative Orders Protecting the Public Interest

Freeze orders

58. (1) If the Superintendent considers it expedient for the administration of Nunavut securities laws, the Superintendent may, by order,

- (a) direct a person having on deposit, or under the person's direct or indirect control or safekeeping, records, property or things, including funds or securities, to hold them pending a further order; or
- (b) direct a person who owns or is in possession or control of records, property or things, including funds or securities,
 - (i) not to withdraw or remove the records, property or things from any person having them on deposit, under the person's direct or indirect control, or holding them for safekeeping, or
 - (ii) to hold all records, property or things of clients or others in the person's possession or control in trust for a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator appointed under Nunavut securities laws, any other enactment of Nunavut, or an enactment of Canada.

Application of order to offices and branches

(2) An order of the Superintendent to a Canadian financial institution applies to all offices, branches or agencies of the Canadian financial institution that are located in Nunavut if a copy of the order is served on the Canadian financial institution's principal place of business in Nunavut.

Clearing agencies and transfer agents

(3) Unless it expressly so states, an order of the Superintendent does not apply to records, property or things in a clearing agency or to securities in the process of being transferred by a transfer agent.

Notice to land registry

(4) The Superintendent may send a notice to the Registrar of Land Titles that proceedings are being or are about to be taken under this Part that may affect land belonging to the person referred to in the notice, and may amend or revoke the notice as the circumstances require.

Recording notice

(5) On receipt of the notice, the Registrar of Land Titles shall record the notice in the general register, and where a certificate of title has been issued for any land specified in the notice, make a memorandum of the notice on the certificate of title.

Effect of recording notice

(6) A notice recorded or memorandum made under subsection (5) has the same effect as the registration or recording of a certificate of pending litigation or a caveat.

Cease trading orders for failing to provide records

59. (1) Despite subsection 60(2), if a person fails to provide periodic disclosure as required under section 102, the Superintendent may, without conducting a hearing, order one or more of the following:

- (a) that trading in or purchasing cease in respect of any security as specified in the order;
- (b) that a person cease trading in or purchasing any securities or specified securities as specified in the order.

Revocation

(2) The order shall be revoked as soon as practicable after the record referred to in the order is filed.

Notice

- (3) The Superintendent shall send to any person directly affected by the order
- (a) written notice of the order; and
 - (b) written notice of the revocation of the order, if any.

Superintendent orders

60. (1) The Superintendent may, if the Superintendent considers it to be in the public interest, make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) that
 - (i) a person be prohibited from being registered,
 - (ii) registration granted to a person under Nunavut securities laws be suspended or restricted for such period as is specified in the order or be terminated;

- (b) that recognition granted to a recognized entity be suspended or restricted for such period as is specified in the order or be terminated;
- (c) that trading in or purchasing any securities by or of a person cease permanently or for such period as is specified in the order;
- (d) that any exemptions contained in Nunavut securities laws do not apply to a person permanently or for such period as is specified in the order;
- (e) that a market participant submit to a review of the practices and procedures of the market participant and institute such changes as may be ordered by the Superintendent;
- (f) that any record described in the order,
 - (i) be provided by a market participant to a person,
 - (ii) not be provided by a market participant to a person, or
 - (iii) be amended by a market participant to the extent that amendment is practicable;
- (g) that a person be reprimanded;
- (h) that a person is prohibited from acting as
 - (i) a registrant,
 - (ii) an investment fund manager,
 - (iii) a promoter, or
 - (iv) a person involved in investor-relations activities;
- (i) that a person resign one or more positions that the person holds as a director or officer of
 - (i) an issuer,
 - (ii) a registrant,
 - (iii) an investment fund manager,
 - (iv) a promoter, or
 - (v) a person involved in investor-relations activities;
- (j) that a person is prohibited from becoming or acting as a director or officer of
 - (i) an issuer,
 - (ii) a registrant,
 - (iii) an investment fund manager,
 - (iv) a promoter, or
 - (v) a person involved in investor-relations activities;
- (k) that a person comply with
 - (i) a rule, policy or other similar instrument of a recognized entity, or
 - (ii) a decision, order, ruling or direction of a recognized entity under a rule, policy or other similar instrument of a recognized entity;
- (l) that a person comply with Nunavut securities laws;
- (m) where the Superintendent is satisfied that a person has contravened Nunavut securities laws, that the person pay an administrative penalty of not more than $1,000,000 for each contravention.

Hearing required

(2) The Superintendent shall not make an order under subsection (1) without conducting a hearing.

Grounds for order

(3) Despite subsection (2), the Superintendent may, after giving an opportunity to be heard, make an order under paragraphs (1)(a) to (l) in respect of a person who

- (a) has been convicted in Canada or elsewhere of an offence
 - (i) arising from a transaction, business or course of conduct related to securities, or
 - (ii) under laws respecting trading in securities;
- (b) has been found by a court in Canada or elsewhere to have contravened laws respecting trading in securities;
- (c) is subject to an order made by a securities regulatory authority in Canada or elsewhere; or
- (d) has agreed with a securities regulatory authority in Canada or elsewhere to be subject to sanctions, conditions, restrictions or requirements.

Entitlement to participate

(4) A person is not entitled to participate in a proceeding in which an order may be made under paragraph (1)(m) solely on the basis that the person has a right of action against the person who is the subject of the proceeding or that the person may be entitled to receive amounts ordered to be paid by a court relating to the same matter.

Interim orders

61. (1) If the Superintendent has the authority to make an order after conducting a hearing under section 60, and the Superintendent considers that

- (a) the length of time required to conduct a hearing, or
- (b) the length of time to give an opportunity to be heard and make a decision, could be prejudicial to the public interest, the Superintendent may make an interim order at any time without conducting a hearing.

Where order may not be made

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Superintendent may not make an interim order

- (a) that a market participant submit to a review of its practices and procedures under paragraph 60(1)(e);
- (b) that records, property or things be provided, not be provided or amended under paragraph 60(1)(f);
- (c) reprimanding a person under paragraph 60(1)(g);
- (d) requiring payment of an administrative penalty under paragraph 60(1)(m); or
- (e) respecting a person referred to in subsection 60(3).

Effect and expiry

(3) An interim order

- (a) takes effect immediately on its being made, unless the order provides otherwise; and
- (b) expires not more than 15 days after the date the interim order is made.

Extension of order

(4) If the Superintendent considers it necessary and in the public interest, the Superintendent may, by order made without conducting a hearing, extend the period of time that an interim order remains in effect

- (a) for such period as the Superintendent considers necessary; or
- (b) until the hearing is concluded and a decision is made.

Notice

(5) If the Superintendent makes an interim order, the Superintendent shall send to any person named in the order,

- (a) the interim order and the notice of hearing; and
- (b) any order extending the interim order.

Culpability of directors, officers and others

62. (1) If a person, other than an individual, contravenes Nunavut securities laws, whether or not any proceeding has been commenced or any decision has been made with respect to that person under those laws,

- (a) every director of that person, and
- (b) every officer of that person, who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the contravention also contravenes those laws.

Culpability of person authorizing contravention

(2) If a person, other than an individual, contravenes Nunavut securities laws, whether or not any proceeding has been commenced or any decision has been made with respect to that person under those laws, every person, other than an officer or director of the person, who authorized, permitted, or acquiesced in the contravention, also contravenes those laws.

Culpability of person inciting contravention

(3) A person who, by an act or omission, incites, counsels, induces, aids or orders another person to contravene Nunavut securities laws, whether or not any proceeding has been commenced or any decision has been made with respect to that contravention, also contravenes those laws.

Investigation and hearing costs

63. (1) After giving an opportunity to be heard, the Superintendent may order a person subject to a hearing to pay, subject to the rules, the costs of the investigation, the hearing and related costs, including the costs incurred in respect of the attendance of any witnesses under Nunavut securities laws, if the Superintendent

- (a) is satisfied that the person has contravened or is contravening Nunavut securities laws; or
- (b) considers that the person has not acted or is not acting in the public interest.

Investigation costs after conviction

(2) If a person is found guilty of an offence under Nunavut securities laws, the Superintendent may, after giving an opportunity to be heard, order the person to pay, subject to the rules, the costs of an investigation carried out in relation to the offence including the costs incurred in respect of the attendance of any witnesses under those laws.

Application of Rules of Nunavut Court of Justice

(3) The Rules of the Nunavut Court of Justice, including any rules relating to the taxation of costs, do not apply to costs referred to in this section.

Appeals to Court of Appeal

Appeal from Superintendent's decision

64. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person directly affected by a decision of the Superintendent may appeal the decision to the Court of Appeal.

Where appeal not permitted

(2) No person may appeal to the Court of Appeal

- (a) a decision of a delegate of the Superintendent, other than an extra-territorial decision in an appeal under section 65;
- (b) an order of the Superintendent to grant an exemption under section 16 or a refusal to grant an exemption;
- (c) a decision of the Superintendent under section 80; or
- (d) a decision to disclose or not to disclose information collected, received or obtained by the Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent under Nunavut securities laws.

Notice of appeal

(3) An appeal under this section must be commenced by a notice of appeal filed with the Court of Appeal within 30 days after the day the Superintendent sends notice of the decision to the person appealing it.

Copies to Superintendent

(4) A copy of the notice of appeal and supporting documents must be served on the Superintendent within the 30-day period referred to in subsection (3).

Certified copies

(5) The Superintendent shall provide a certified copy of each of the following to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal

- (a) the decision that has been reviewed by the Superintendent;
- (b) the order of the Superintendent, together with any statement of reasons for it;
- (c) the record of the proceedings before the Superintendent;
- (d) all written submissions made to the Superintendent and other material, if any, that is relevant to the appeal.

Practice and procedure

(6) The practice and procedure in the Court of Appeal in respect of an appeal under this section shall be the same as on an appeal from a judgment of the Nunavut Court of Justice in an action.

Powers on appeal

(7) The Court of Appeal may

- (a) confirm, vary or reject the decision of the Superintendent;
- (b) direct the Superintendent to rehear the matter; or
- (c) make any decision that the Superintendent could have made and substitute its decision for that of the Superintendent.

Respondent

(8) The Superintendent is the respondent to an appeal under this section.

Further decisions

(9) Despite an order of the Court of Appeal, the Superintendent may make further decisions upon new material or if there is a significant change in circumstances, and every further decision is subject to appeal to the Court of Appeal.

Right of appeal

65. (1) A person directly affected by a decision of the Superintendent made pursuant to a delegated authority may appeal that decision to the Court of Appeal.

Governing the appeal

(2) Subsections 64(3) to (9) apply to an appeal under this section.

Right of appeal

(3) A person who has a right to appeal a decision under this section may, subject to any direction of the Court of Appeal, exercise that right of appeal whether or not that person has a right to appeal that decision to a court in another jurisdiction.

Stay of appeal

(4) Despite subsection (3), where a decision referred to in subsection (1) is being appealed to a court in another jurisdiction, the Court of Appeal may stay an appeal under this section pending the determination of the appeal in the other jurisdiction.

Definition of "delegated authority"

(5) In this section, "delegated authority" means any extra-territorial authority that is delegated to and accepted by the Superintendent under section 136.

Appeal from extra-territorial decisions

66. (1) A person directly affected by an extra-territorial decision may appeal the decision to the Court of Appeal.

Notice of appeal

(2) An appeal under this section must be commenced by a notice of appeal filed with the Court of Appeal within 30 days after the day the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority serves the notice of its decision on the person appealing the decision.

Practice and procedure

(3) The practice and procedure in the Court of Appeal in respect of an appeal under this section shall, with any necessary modification that the Court of Appeal considers appropriate, be the same as on an appeal from a judgment of the Nunavut Court of Justice in an action.

Powers on appeal

- (4) The Court of Appeal may, with respect to an appeal under this section,
- (a) make any order or direction that it considers appropriate with respect to the commencement or conduct of any matter relating to the appeal;
 - (b) confirm, vary or reject the extra-territorial decision; or
 - (c) make any decision that the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority could have made and substitute the Court's decision for that of the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority.

Respondent

(5) The extra-territorial securities regulatory authority is the respondent to an appeal under this section.

Copies of documents

(6) A copy of the notice of appeal and supporting documents must, within the 30-day period referred to in subsection (2), be served on the respondent and the Superintendent.

Superintendent entitled to appear

(7) Despite the fact that the Superintendent is not a respondent to an appeal under this section, the Superintendent is entitled to be represented at the appeal and to make representations in respect of any matter before the Court related to the appeal.

When decision takes effect

(8) Despite the commencement of an appeal under this section, the extra-territorial decision being appealed takes effect immediately unless the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority, the Superintendent or the Court of Appeal grants a stay of proceedings pending disposition of the appeal.

Extra-territorial securities regulatory authority

(9) In this section, a reference to an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority is a reference to the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority that made the extra-territorial decision that is being appealed under this section.

Nunavut Court of Justice Declarations and Enforcement

Application for declaration

67. (1) The Superintendent may apply to the Nunavut Court of Justice for a declaration that a person has contravened or is contravening Nunavut securities laws.

Hearing not required

(2) The Superintendent is not required, before making the application, to conduct a hearing to determine whether the person has contravened or is contravening Nunavut securities laws

Procedure

(3) On an application under subsection (1), the court may hear the application in such manner, and make such declaration, as it considers appropriate.

Concurrent decisions

(4) On making a declaration under subsection (3) and despite the imposition of an administrative penalty under paragraph 60(1)(m), an order made under section 110 or a disposition under section 164, the court may make any order that it considers appropriate with respect to the person, including, without limitation,

- (a) an order that a person produce to the court or an interested person financial statements in the form required by securities law or an accounting in such other form as the court may determine;
- (b) an order rectifying the registers or other records of a person;
- (c) an order that a person rectify a past contravention of Nunavut securities laws to the extent that rectification is practicable;
- (d) an order that a person comply with Nunavut securities laws;
- (e) an order that a person purchase securities of a security holder;
- (f) an order rescinding any transaction relating to securities;
- (g) an order requiring the issuance, cancellation, purchase, exchange or disposition of a security;
- (h) an order prohibiting the voting or exercise of any other right attaching to a security;
- (i) an order appointing officers and directors in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors and officers of an issuer that is the subject of the application;
- (j) an order directing a person to repay to a security holder any part of the money paid by the security holder for a security;
- (k) an order requiring a person to compensate or make restitution to an aggrieved person;

- (l) an order requiring a person to pay general or punitive damages; and
- (m) an order requiring a person to pay to the Government of Nunavut any amounts obtained or losses avoided by reason of the contravention of Nunavut securities laws.

Application brought without notice

(5) An application under subsection (1) may be made ex parte, unless the court otherwise directs.

Enforcement of decisions

68. (1) Any of the following may be filed with the Nunavut Court of Justice:

- (a) a decision made by the Superintendent,
- (b) a decision made by a delegate of the Superintendent,
- (c) a settlement agreement made between the Superintendent and a person, or
- (d) a notice certifying the costs a person is required to pay under section 63.

Effect

(2) A decision, settlement agreement or notice filed with the Court under this section has the same effect as if it were a judgment of the Court.

Collection

(3) Where a decision, settlement agreement or notice is filed under subsection (1),

- (a) the amount certified in the notice,
- (b) any financial penalty imposed in a decision, and
- (c) any amount payable to the Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent, may be collected as a judgment of the Nunavut Court of Justice for the recovery of debt.

MARKETPLACES, SELF-REGULATION AND MARKET PARTICIPANTS

Recognized Entities

Definition of "internal regulating instrument"

69. In this Part, "internal regulating instrument" includes, in relation to a recognized entity, a bylaw, rule, regulation, policy, procedure, interpretation or practice of the regulated entity.

Recognition required for exchanges and quotation and trade reporting systems

70. No person shall carry on business as

- (a) an exchange,
- (b) a quotation and trade reporting system, or
- (c) a clearing agency,

unless that person is recognized by the Superintendent under this Part.

Designation of other entities requiring recognition

71. (1) The Superintendent may, by order, designate as requiring recognition under this Part,

- (a) a self-regulatory organization; or
- (b) a person whom the Superintendent considers should be so designated in the public interest, because the person is carrying on a business that is related to or consistent with the purposes of Nunavut securities laws.

Opportunity to be heard

(2) A person must not be designated under this section unless the person has been given an opportunity to be heard.

Carrying on business

(3) No person who is designated as requiring recognition under subsection (1) shall carry on the business in respect of which the person is designated unless that person is recognized by the Superintendent.

Recognition orders

72. On application by

- (a) an exchange,
- (b) a quotation and trade reporting system,
- (c) a clearing agency, or
- (d) a person designated as requiring recognition under this Part,

the Superintendent may, by order, recognize the applicant if the Superintendent considers that it would be in the public interest to do so.

Voluntary surrender of recognition

73. On application by a recognized entity, the Superintendent may accept the voluntary surrender of recognition of the recognized entity if the Superintendent considers that the surrender is not prejudicial to the public interest.

Authority, Duties and Supervision of Recognized Entities

Powers of recognized entities

74. (1) A recognized entity shall regulate its participants or the participants of another recognized entity and each of their employees, agents or subscribers in accordance with the internal regulating instruments of the recognized entity, or of the other recognized entity, as amended from time to time.

Scope of authority to regulate

(2) The authority of a recognized entity to regulate its participants or the participants of another recognized entity extends to

- (a) its former participants or the former participants of the other

- recognized entity,
- (b) former employees, agents or subscribers of its participants and former participants, or
- (c) former employees, agents or subscribers of participants or former participants of the other recognized entity, with respect to the person's activities while a participant, or employee, agent or subscriber of a participant or former participant, of the recognized entity or the other recognized entity.

Consistency with securities laws

(3) The internal regulating instruments of a recognized entity must be consistent with Nunavut securities laws, but the recognized entity may impose additional requirements within its jurisdiction.

Delegation

75. (1) The Superintendent may delegate to a recognized entity any of the powers, functions or duties of the Superintendent

- (a) under Part 8 or under rules relating to registration or registrants; or
- (b) under rules relating to the regulation and oversight of auditors of reporting issuers.

Subdelegation

(2) A recognized entity may, with the prior approval of the Superintendent, subdelegate any of the powers, functions or duties received by it from the Superintendent under subsection (1).

Decision

(3) A decision of a delegate of a recognized entity made under any of the powers, functions or duties received by it from the recognized entity under subsection (2) is deemed to be a decision of the recognized entity unless the internal regulating instruments of the recognized entity provide otherwise.

(4) The Superintendent may continue to exercise any power, function or duty delegated by the Superintendent to a recognized entity.

Terms and conditions

(5) A recognized entity may impose terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements on a decision of the recognized entity made in the exercise of any power, function or duty delegated to it by the Superintendent.

Revocation and variation

(6) A recognized entity may revoke or vary a decision of the recognized entity made in the exercise of any power, function or duty delegated to it by the Superintendent, and may impose new terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements on the decision.

Authorizations

- 76. The Superintendent may, by order, authorize a recognized entity to
- (a) exercise authority under section 77;
 - (b) make an application under subsection 78(1) for the appointment of a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator;
 - (c) file a decision of the recognized entity with the Nunavut Court of Justice under subsection 83(1); and
 - (d) file a settlement agreement with the Nunavut Court of Justice under subsection 83(2).

Attendance of witnesses and giving evidence

- 77. The following apply in respect of a hearing of a recognized entity that is empowered under its internal regulating instruments to conduct hearings, and if it is authorized to do so by an order made under paragraph 76(a):
- (a) the person conducting the hearing has the same powers as are vested in the Nunavut Court of Justice for the trial of civil actions
 - (i) to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses,
 - (ii) to compel witnesses to give evidence under oath, by affirmation or otherwise, and
 - (iii) to compel witnesses to produce records, property and things;
 - (b) the failure or refusal of a person summoned to attend the hearing, answer questions, or produce records, property or things that are in the person's custody or possession, or under the person's direct or indirect control, makes that person, on the application to the Nunavut Court of Justice of the person conducting the hearing, liable to be committed for contempt by the Nunavut Court of Justice;
 - (c) the person conducting the hearing may take evidence under oath;
 - (d) the person conducting the hearing or a person authorized by that person may administer oaths or affirmations for the purpose of taking evidence;
 - (e) the recognized entity may, on behalf of the person conducting a hearing,
 - (i) summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and
 - (ii) make applications to the Nunavut Court of Justice under paragraph (b).

Appointment to manage affairs

- 78. (1) A recognized entity that is authorized to do so by an order made under paragraph 76(b) may apply to the Nunavut Court of Justice for the appointment of a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator for all or part of the undertaking and affairs of a participant of that recognized entity.

Criteria for appointment

- (2) On an application under subsection (1), the court may appoint a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator if the court is satisfied that the appointment is in the best interests of

- (a) the recognized entity;
- (b) the public;
- (c) those persons whose property is in the possession or under the control of the participant;
- (d) security holders or partners of the participant;
- (e) subscribers or clients of the participant; or
- (f) creditors of the participant.

Application brought without notice

(3) An application under subsection (1) may be made ex parte if the court considers it appropriate to do so in the circumstances.

Collection, use and disclosure of personal information

79. A recognized entity may, with respect to any personal information referred to, dealt with or governed under the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada), collect that information, whether directly from the individual, through a registrant or participant, or by some other method, and may use and disclose that information for the purpose of

- (a) the suppression of fraud, market manipulation or unfair trading practices;
- (b) an investigation
 - (i) of a contravention of rules, policies or other similar instruments of the recognized entity, or
 - (ii) of fraud, market manipulation or unfair trading practices; or
- (c) an investigation, inspection or review of auditors of reporting issuers.

Supervision of recognized entities

80. If the Superintendent considers it in the public interest, the Superintendent may make any decision with respect to the following matters:

- (a) a rule, policy or other similar instrument of a recognized entity;
- (b) the procedures, practices, operations and interpretations of a recognized entity;
- (c) the manner in which a recognized entity carries on business;
- (d) the trading of securities on or through the facilities of a recognized entity;
- (e) a security listed or quoted on a recognized entity;
- (f) issuers whose securities are listed or quoted on a recognized entity to ensure that they comply with Nunavut securities laws;
- (g) a security cleared through a recognized entity.

Definition of "decision"

81. (1) In this section and in sections 82 and 83, "decision" means, in relation to a recognized entity,

- (a) a decision, order, ruling or direction of the recognized entity made under the internal regulating instruments of the recognized entity;
- (b) a decision of the recognized entity made under a power, function or duty delegated to the recognized entity by the Superintendent; and
- (c) a decision of a delegate of a recognized entity that is deemed to be a decision of the recognized entity by subsection 75(3).

Review requested by person directly affected

(2) A person who is directly affected by a decision of a recognized entity, or by the administration of such a decision, may request and is entitled to a review of the decision by the Superintendent by giving notice of the person's intention to do so to

- (a) the recognized entity that made the decision, and
- (b) the Superintendent, within 30 days after the date the person was sent notice of the decision.

Review initiated by Superintendent

(3) The Superintendent may, on the Superintendent's own initiative, review a decision of a recognized entity by giving notice of the intention to do so to

- (a) the recognized entity that made the decision,
- (b) any person directly affected by the decision, and
- (c) any person affected by the administration of the decision, within 30 days after the date the Superintendent was informed of the decision.

Review requested by recognized entity

(4) Subject to the internal regulating instruments of a recognized entity, the recognized entity may, on its own initiative, request and is entitled to a review by the Superintendent of a decision of a delegate of the recognized entity, by giving notice of the recognized entity's intention to do so to

- (a) the delegate of the recognized entity who made the decision,
- (b) the Superintendent, and
- (c) any person directly affected by the decision,

within 30 days after the date the recognized entity was informed of the decision by its delegate.

Party to review

(5) The recognized entity is a party to any review of a decision of the recognized entity that is conducted by the Superintendent under this section.

Nature and extent of review

(6) The Superintendent may decide the nature and extent of any review to be conducted by the Superintendent under this section, and may conduct it as

- (a) a partial or full hearing or rehearing of the matter subject to review; or
- (b) a document-only review.

Decision after review

(7) After a review, the Superintendent may confirm, vary or revoke the decision reviewed, and in doing so may make any decision the recognized entity or its delegate could have made acting under

- (a) the power, function or duty delegated to the recognized entity by the Superintendent; or
- (b) the internal regulating instruments of the recognized entity.

When decisions take effect

82. A decision of a recognized entity takes effect immediately despite a request for a review or the giving of notice by the Superintendent of the intention to conduct a review, unless the recognized entity or the Superintendent suspends the decision pending the review.

Filing with Nunavut Court of Justice

83. (1) A recognized entity may file a copy of a decision it makes with the Nunavut Court of Justice if

- (a) the recognized entity is authorized to do so by an order made under paragraph 76(c);
- (b) the decision was made following a hearing; and
- (c) the time for requesting a review of the decision has expired.

Settlement agreement

(2) A recognized entity may file a copy of a settlement agreement between it and a person with the Nunavut Court of Justice if the recognized entity is authorized to do so by an order made under paragraph 76(d).

Effect

(3) A decision or settlement agreement filed with the Nunavut Court of Justice under this section has the same effect as if it were a judgment of the Court.

Collection

(4) Where a decision or settlement agreement is filed under subsection (1),
(a) any financial penalty imposed in a decision, and
(b) any amount payable to a recognized entity or its delegate,
may be collected as a judgment of the Nunavut Court of Justice for the recovery of debt.

Market Participants

Records

84. (1) Every market participant shall

- (a) keep records necessary to properly record its business and financial affairs and the transactions that it executes on behalf of itself and others; and
- (b) keep such other records as are required by Nunavut securities laws.

Communication and records to Superintendent

(2) When required by the Superintendent, a market participant shall provide to the Superintendent

- (a) any of the records that are required to be kept by the market participant; and
- (b) any communication made or record provided by the market participant to an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority, recognized entity, government or governmental or financial regulatory authority in a Canadian jurisdiction or in a foreign jurisdiction, unless prohibited by law from doing so.

Review of market participants

85. (1) The Superintendent may conduct a review of the records, activities, business and conduct of a market participant to determine whether

- (a) the market participant is complying with Nunavut securities laws; or
- (b) the market participant is, if it is a recognized entity, enforcing and administering its internal regulating instruments or the internal regulating instruments of another recognized entity.

Appointment of reviewer

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Superintendent may, in writing, appoint another person to conduct the review.

Powers of entry and examination

(3) The person conducting a review under this section may

- (a) enter the business premises of a market participant during business hours;
- (b) examine the market participant's records, property or things;
- (c) make inquiries of the market participant, or of persons who are employed or engaged by, or who have entered into an agency relationship with the market participant, concerning the market participant's activities, business and conduct;
- (d) require the market participant to provide information about the market participant's activities, business and conduct;
- (e) require the market participant to produce any records, property or thing;
- (f) copy records of the market participant; and
- (g) on giving a receipt, remove records for the purpose of copying them at other premises.

Return of records

(4) Records removed for copying must be promptly returned to the person from whom they were received.

Prohibition

(5) No person who is the subject of a review under this section shall withhold, destroy, conceal or refuse to give any information, records, property or things reasonably required for the purpose of the review.

Fees or charges

(6) After giving an opportunity to be heard, the Superintendent may require a market participant that is the subject of a review under this section to pay prescribed fees or prescribed charges for the cost of the review.

Act prevails

(7) Despite the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, information and records obtained under this section are exempt from disclosure under that Act if the Superintendent determines that the information and records should be kept confidential.

PART 8

REGISTRATION

Dealers or advisers

86. (1) No person shall

- (a) act as a dealer unless the person is registered as a dealer, or is registered as a representative of a registered dealer and is acting on behalf of the dealer, or
- (b) act as an adviser unless the person is registered as an adviser, or is registered as a representative of a registered adviser and is acting on behalf of the adviser, and the registration has been made in accordance with Nunavut securities laws.

Underwriters

(2) No person shall act as an underwriter unless the person is registered as a dealer in accordance with Nunavut securities laws.

Investment fund managers

(3) No person shall act as an investment fund manager unless the person is registered as an investment fund manager in accordance with Nunavut securities laws, or is acting on behalf of a registered investment fund manager.

Individuals performing prescribed functions for dealers or advisers

87. (1) A person required to be registered as a dealer or adviser shall appoint an individual to perform on the person's behalf a prescribed function or duty.

Registration requirement

(2) An individual appointed under subsection (1) shall be registered in accordance with Nunavut securities laws.

Individuals performing prescribed functions for investment fund managers

(3) A person required to be registered as an investment fund manager shall appoint an individual to perform on the person's behalf a prescribed function or duty.

Registration requirement

(4) An individual appointed under subsection (3) shall be registered in accordance with Nunavut securities laws.

Applications

88. (1) An application under this Part for registration or for the reinstatement or amendment of registration, must be made to the Superintendent in accordance with the rules.

Further information and examination

- (2) The Superintendent may, at any time, require
- (a) an applicant or registrant to submit such information or materials, in addition to that required by the rules, within such time as the Superintendent considers appropriate; and
 - (b) an applicant or registrant, as the case may be, or any partner, officer, director, or any person performing a like function for, or any employee of, the applicant or registrant, to submit to an examination taken under oath or by affirmation.

Registration

89. (1) The Superintendent shall grant to an applicant the registration, reinstatement of registration or amendment of registration applied for, unless it appears to the Superintendent that

- (a) the applicant is not suitable for registration, reinstatement of registration or amendment of registration; or
- (b) the proposed registration, reinstatement of registration or amendment of registration is objectionable.

Imposition of terms and conditions

(2) The Superintendent may, at any time, impose terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements on a registration, including limiting the duration of the registration.

Opportunity to be heard

(3) The Superintendent shall not, without giving the applicant or registrant, as the case may be, an opportunity to be heard,

- (a) refuse to grant, reinstate or amend a registration; or
- (b) impose terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements on a registration.

Compliance with terms and conditions

(4) A registrant shall comply with any terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements that are imposed on the registrant's registration.

Duty of care of registrants

90. (1) A registrant shall deal fairly, honestly and in good faith with his, her or its clients.

Duty of care of investment fund managers

(2) Every investment fund manager shall

- (a) exercise the powers and discharge the duties of his, her or its office honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the investment fund; and
- (b) exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in the circumstances.

Surrender of registration

91. (1) If a registrant applies to surrender his, her or its registration, the Superintendent shall accept the surrender unless the Superintendent considers it prejudicial to the public interest to do so.

Suspension or imposition of terms and conditions

(2) On receiving an application referred to in subsection (1), the Superintendent may, without giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard, suspend the registration or impose terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements on the registration.

Suspension or termination of registration

92. (1) The Superintendent may suspend or terminate a registration if the Superintendent considers that it is in the public interest to do so.

Opportunity to be heard

(2) The Superintendent shall not suspend or terminate a registration under subsection (1), without giving the registrant an opportunity to be heard.

Automatic suspension

93. (1) If a registered individual ceases to be authorized to act on behalf of a registrant, the registration of the individual is suspended until it is transferred, reinstated or terminated in accordance with the rules.

Non-payment of fees

(2) If a fee that is required by Nunavut securities laws to be paid by or on behalf of a registrant is not paid by the date by which the fee must be paid, the registrant's registration is suspended until

- (a) the registration is terminated in accordance with the rules; or
- (b) the fee is paid and the registration is reinstated in accordance with the rules.

PART 9

PROSPECTUS REQUIREMENTS

Prospectus required

94. No person shall distribute a security, either on the person's own behalf or on behalf of another person, unless

- (a) a preliminary prospectus and a prospectus relating to the security have been filed and the Superintendent has issued a receipt for the preliminary prospectus and the prospectus; or
- (b) the person or the distribution complies with a prescribed process.

Filing prospectus without distribution

95. Even though no distribution of a security is contemplated, a person may file a preliminary prospectus and a prospectus, in the specified form and with the prescribed contents,

- (a) for the purpose of enabling the issuer to become a reporting issuer; or
- (b) for a prescribed purpose.

Form and contents of preliminary prospectus

96. (1) A preliminary prospectus shall, subject to subsection (2), comply with the requirements of Nunavut securities laws respecting the form and content of a prospectus.

Permitted omissions

(2) The report or reports of an auditor or accountant required by the rules and any information with respect to

- (a) the price to the underwriter,
- (b) the offering price of any securities, or
- (c) matters dependent on or relating to those prices,

may be omitted from a preliminary prospectus.

Receipt

(3) The Superintendent shall promptly issue a receipt for a preliminary prospectus on the filing of the preliminary prospectus.

Waiting period

97. During the period of time between the issuance of a receipt for a preliminary prospectus and the issuance of a receipt for a prospectus, a person may

- (a) communicate with any other person identifying the security proposed to be issued, stating the price of the security if it is then determined, stating the name and address of a person from whom purchases of the security may be made, and stating any further information as may be permitted or required by the rules, if every such communication states the name and address of a person from whom a preliminary prospectus may be obtained;

- (b) distribute a preliminary prospectus; and
- (c) solicit expressions of interest from a prospective purchaser if, prior to the solicitation or promptly after the prospective purchaser indicates an interest in purchasing the security, a copy of the preliminary prospectus is forwarded to the prospective purchaser.

Defective preliminary prospectus

98. (1) If the Superintendent considers that a preliminary prospectus does not contain the prescribed information, the Superintendent may, without giving prior notice, order that the trading permitted under section 97 in the security to which the preliminary prospectus relates cease.

Duration of order

(2) An order made under subsection (1) remains in force until a revised preliminary prospectus, satisfactory to the Superintendent,

- (a) is filed with the Superintendent; and
- (b) is sent to every recipient of the defective preliminary prospectus recorded as a recipient in accordance with the rules.

Prospectus

99. (1) A prospectus shall

- (a) provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the securities issued or proposed to be distributed; and
- (b) otherwise comply with the requirements of Nunavut securities laws.

Supplemental material

(2) The prospectus shall contain or be accompanied by financial statements, reports or other documents in accordance with Nunavut securities laws.

Receipt for prospectus

100. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and except as otherwise prescribed, the Superintendent shall issue a receipt for a prospectus filed under this Part, unless the Superintendent considers that it is not in the public interest to do so.

Where receipt not to be issued

(2) The Superintendent shall not issue a receipt for a prospectus filed under this Part if the Superintendent considers that

- (a) the prospectus or any document required to be filed with it
 - (i) does not comply in any substantial respect with any of the requirements of this Part or the rules,
 - (ii) contains any statement, promise, estimate or forward-looking information that is misleading, false or deceptive, or
 - (iii) contains a misrepresentation;
- (b) an unconscionable consideration has been paid or given or is

- intended to be paid or given for any services or promotional purposes or for the acquisition of property;
- (c) the aggregate of the proceeds from the sale of the securities under the prospectus that are to be paid into the treasury of the issuer and the other resources of the issuer is insufficient to accomplish the purpose of the issue stated in the prospectus;
 - (d) the issuer cannot reasonably be expected to be financially responsible in the conduct of its business because of the financial condition of
 - (i) the issuer,
 - (ii) any of the issuer's officers, directors, promoters or control persons, or
 - (iii) the investment fund manager of the issuer or any of the investment fund manager's officers, directors or control persons;
 - (e) the business of the issuer may not be conducted with integrity and in the best interests of the security holders of the issuer because of the past conduct of
 - (i) the issuer,
 - (ii) any of the issuer's officers, directors, promoters or control persons, or
 - (iii) the investment fund manager of the issuer or any of the investment fund manager's officers, directors or control persons;
 - (f) a person who has prepared or certified any part of the prospectus, or who is named as having prepared or certified a report or valuation used in connection with the prospectus, is not acceptable;
 - (g) an escrow or pooling agreement in the form that the Superintendent considers necessary or advisable with respect to the securities has not been entered into; or
 - (h) adequate arrangements have not been made for the holding in trust of the proceeds payable to the issuer from the sale of securities pending the distribution of the securities.

Opportunity to be heard

(3) The Superintendent shall not refuse to issue a receipt for a prospectus filed under this Part without giving the person who filed the prospectus an opportunity to be heard.

Obligation to deliver prospectus

101. (1) A dealer or other person, not acting as agent of the purchaser of a security, who receives an order or subscription for a security offered in a distribution to which section 94 applies shall, unless the dealer or other person has previously done so, send to the purchaser the latest prospectus filed or required to be filed under this Act in relation to the security and any amendment to the prospectus filed or required to be filed under this Act,

- (a) before entering into an agreement of purchase and sale resulting from the order or subscription; or
- (b) not later than midnight on the second business day after entering into the agreement.

Withdrawal from purchase

(2) An agreement of purchase and sale referred to in subsection (1) is not binding on the purchaser if the dealer or other person from whom the purchaser purchases the security receives written notice evidencing the intention of the purchaser not to be bound by the agreement of purchase and sale not later than midnight on the second business day after receipt by the purchaser of the latest prospectus and any amendment to the prospectus.

Exception from right to withdraw

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the purchaser is a registrant or if the purchaser sells or otherwise transfers beneficial ownership of the security referred to in that subsection, otherwise than to secure indebtedness, before the expiration of the time referred to in that subsection.

Withdrawal right of beneficial owner

(4) A beneficial owner of the security who is not the purchaser under this section may exercise the same rights under subsection (2) as may be exercised by a purchaser.

Purchaser to advise beneficial owner

(5) A purchaser referred to in subsection (2) who is not the beneficial owner of the security, shall advise the person who is the beneficial owner of the provisions of subsections (2) and (4).

Exception from obligation to advise

(6) Subsection (5) only applies if the purchaser knows the name and address of the beneficial owner of the security.

Receipt of prospectus by agent

(7) For the purposes of this section, receipt of the latest prospectus and any amendment to the prospectus by a dealer or other person who is acting as agent of or who after receipt commences to act as agent of the purchaser with respect to the purchase of a security referred to in subsection (1), is deemed to be receipt by the purchaser as of the date on which the agent received the latest prospectus and any amendment to the prospectus.

Receipt of notice by agent

(8) For the purposes of this section, receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (2) by a dealer or other person who acted as agent of the vendor with respect to the sale of the security referred to in subsection (1), is deemed to be receipt by the vendor as of the date on which the agent received the notice.

Dealer as agent

(9) For the purposes of this section, a dealer or other person shall not be considered to be acting as agent of the purchaser unless the dealer or other person is acting solely as agent of the purchaser with respect to the purchase and sale in question, and has not received and has no agreement to receive compensation from or on behalf of the vendor with respect to the purchase and sale.

Onus of proof

(10) The onus of proving that the time for giving notice under subsection (2) has expired is on the dealer or other person from whom the purchaser has agreed to purchase the security.

PART 10

CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE

Disclosure obligation for reporting issuers

102. A reporting issuer shall, in accordance with the rules,

- (a) provide periodic disclosure about its business and affairs;
- (b) provide timely disclosure of a material change; and
- (c) provide other prescribed disclosure.

Disclosure obligation for other issuers

103. An issuer that is not a reporting issuer shall disclose prescribed information in accordance with the rules.

PART 11

INSIDER REPORTING AND EARLY WARNING

Initial and subsequent insider report

104. (1) An insider of a reporting issuer shall file reports and make disclosure in accordance with the rules.

Definition of "reporting issuer"

(2) In this section, "reporting issuer" does not include a mutual fund.

Early warning

105. If a person acquires beneficial ownership of, or direct or indirect control or direction over, securities of a prescribed type or class of a reporting issuer representing a prescribed percentage of the outstanding securities of that type or class, the person and any person acting jointly or in concert with the person shall make and file disclosure in accordance with the rules and comply with any prohibitions in the rules on transactions in securities of the reporting issuer.

PART 12

TAKE-OVER BIDS AND ISSUER BIDS

Definitions

106. In this Part,

"interested person" means

- (a) an issuer whose securities are the subject of a take-over bid, issuer bid or other offer to acquire,
- (b) a security holder, director or officer of an issuer described in paragraph (a),
- (c) an offeror,
- (d) the Superintendent, and
- (e) any person not referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) who, in the opinion of the Superintendent or the Nunavut Court of Justice, as the case may be, is a proper person to make an application under section 109 or 110; (personne intéressée)

"issuer bid" means a direct or indirect offer to acquire or redeem a security or a direct or indirect acquisition or redemption of a security that is

- (a) made by the issuer of the security, and
- (b) within a prescribed class of offers, acquisitions or redemptions; (offre publique de rachat)

"take-over bid" means a direct or indirect offer to acquire a security that is

- (a) made directly or indirectly by a person other than the issuer of the security, and
- (b) within a prescribed class of offers to acquire. (offre publique d'achat)

Making of bid

107. A person shall not make a take-over bid or issuer bid, whether acting alone or jointly or in concert with one or more persons, except in accordance with the rules.

Directors' recommendation

108. (1) When a take-over bid has been made, the directors of the issuer whose securities are the subject of the bid shall

- (a) determine whether to recommend acceptance or rejection of the bid or determine not to make a recommendation; and
- (b) make the recommendation, or a statement that they are not making a recommendation, in accordance with the rules.

Individual's recommendation

(2) An individual director or officer of the issuer described in subsection (1) may recommend acceptance or rejection of the take-over bid if the recommendation is made in accordance with the rules.

Order by Superintendent for contraventions

109. On application by an interested person, the Superintendent may, if the Superintendent considers that a person has not complied or is not complying with this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids, make an order

- (a) restraining the distribution of any record used or issued in connection with a take-over bid or issuer bid;
- (b) requiring an amendment to or variation of any record used or issued in connection with a take-over bid or issuer bid and requiring the distribution of amended, varied or corrected information;
- (c) directing any person to comply with this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids;
- (d) restraining any person from contravening this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids; or
- (e) directing the directors and officers of any person to cause the person to comply with or to cease contravening this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids.

Application to Nunavut Court of Justice

110. (1) On application by an interested person, the Nunavut Court of Justice may, if it is satisfied that a person has not complied with this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids, make such interim or final order as it considers appropriate, including, without limitation, an order

- (a) compensating any interested person who is a party to the application for damages suffered as a result of a contravention of this Part or the rules relating to take-over bids and issuer bids;
- (b) rescinding a transaction with any interested person, including the issue of a security or an acquisition and sale of a security;
- (c) requiring any person to dispose of any securities acquired pursuant to or in connection with a take-over bid or an issuer bid;
- (d) prohibiting any person from exercising any or all of the voting rights attaching to any securities; and
- (e) requiring the trial of an issue.

Notice to Superintendent

(2) If the Superintendent is not the applicant under subsection (1),

- (a) the applicant shall give the Superintendent notice of the application; and
- (b) the Superintendent is entitled to appear at the hearing of the application and may make representations to the Nunavut Court of Justice.

CIVIL LIABILITY - GENERAL

Right of action for damages for misrepresentation in prospectus

111. (1) If a prospectus contains a misrepresentation, a person who purchases a security offered by the prospectus during the period of distribution has, without regard to whether the purchaser relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the issuer or a selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
- (b) every underwriter of the securities that is in a contractual relationship with the issuer or selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
- (c) every director of the issuer at the time the prospectus was filed;
- (d) every person whose consent to disclosure of information in the prospectus has been filed but only with respect to reports, statements or opinions that have been made by them;
- (e) every person who signed the prospectus, other than the persons included in paragraphs (a) to (d); and
- (f) any other prescribed person.

Right of action for rescission

(2) If a prospectus contains a misrepresentation, a person who purchases a security offered by the prospectus during the period of distribution has, without regard to whether the purchaser relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for rescission against

- (a) the issuer or a selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
- (b) every underwriter of the securities that is in a contractual relationship with the issuer or selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made; and
- (c) any other underwriter of the securities.

Election

(3) If the purchaser elects to exercise a right of action for rescission against a person, the purchaser shall have no right of action for damages against that person.

Defence if purchaser has knowledge of misrepresentation

(4) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) if the person proves that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation.

Defence if prospectus filed without knowledge, consent or belief

(5) A person, other than the issuer or a selling security holder, is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) if the person proves that

- (a) the prospectus was filed without the person's knowledge or

- consent and that, on becoming aware of its filing, the person had promptly given reasonable general notice that it was so filed;
- (b) after the issue of a receipt for the prospectus and before the purchase of the securities by the purchaser, on becoming aware of any misrepresentation in the prospectus, the person had withdrawn his or her consent to it and had promptly given written notice to the Superintendent and given reasonable general notice of the withdrawal and the reason for it;
 - (c) with respect to any part of the prospectus purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement or opinion of an expert, the person had no reasonable grounds to believe and did not believe that
 - (i) there had been a misrepresentation,
 - (ii) the relevant part of the prospectus did not fairly represent the report, statement or opinion of the expert, or
 - (iii) the relevant part of the prospectus was not a fair copy of, or an extract from, the report, statement or opinion of the expert;
 - (d) with respect to any part of the prospectus purporting to be made on the person's own authority as an expert or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, the person's own report, statement or opinion as an expert, but that contains a misrepresentation attributable to failure to fairly represent the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert,
 - (i) the person had, after reasonable investigation, reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that the relevant part of the prospectus fairly represented the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert, or
 - (ii) on becoming aware that the relevant part of the prospectus did not fairly represent the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert, the person had promptly given written notice to the Superintendent and given reasonable general notice that the person's report, statement or opinion was not fairly represented and that the person would not be responsible for that part of the prospectus; or
 - (e) with respect to a false statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in material that purports to be a copy of, or an extract from, a public official document,
 - (i) it was a correct and fair representation of the statement or copy of, or an extract from, the document, and
 - (ii) the person had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that the statement was true.

Defence for expert material

(6) A person, other than the issuer or a selling security holder, is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) with respect to any part of the prospectus purporting to be made on the person's own authority as an expert or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, the person's own report, statement or opinion as an expert, unless the person

- (a) failed to conduct a reasonable investigation to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation; or
- (b) believed that there had been a misrepresentation.

Defence for other material

(7) A person, other than the issuer or a selling security holder, is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) with respect to any part of the prospectus not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert and not purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement, or opinion of an expert, unless the person

- (a) failed to conduct a reasonable investigation to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation; or
- (b) believed that there had been a misrepresentation.

Defence for forward-looking information

(8) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) with respect to a misrepresentation in forward-looking information if

- (a) the prospectus containing the forward-looking information also contains, proximate to the forward-looking information,
 - (i) reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward-looking information as such and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
 - (ii) a statement of the material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward-looking information; and
- (b) the person had a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in the forward-looking information.

Liability for forward-looking information

(9) Subsection (8) does not relieve a person of liability respecting forward-looking information in a financial statement required to be filed under Nunavut securities laws or forward-looking information in a prospectus filed in connection with an initial public offering.

Limits on liability of underwriter

(10) An underwriter is not liable for more than the total public offering price represented by the portion of the distribution underwritten by the underwriter.

Limits on liability for damages

(11) In an action for damages under subsection (1), the defendant is not liable for any damages that the defendant proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the security resulting from the misrepresentation.

Joint and several liability

(12) All or any one or more of the persons specified in subsection (1) who are found to be liable or who accept liability under this section are jointly and severally liable.

Contributions

(13) A defendant who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless, in all the circumstances, the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable.

Limits on amount recoverable

(14) The amount recoverable by a plaintiff under this section must not exceed the price at which the securities purchased by the plaintiff were offered to the public.

Rights not in derogation

(15) The right of action for rescission or damages conferred by this section is in addition to and without derogation from any other right the purchaser may have at law.

Records incorporated by reference

(16) If a misrepresentation is contained in a record incorporated by reference in, or deemed to be incorporated into, a prospectus, the misrepresentation is deemed to be contained in the prospectus.

Right of action for damages for misrepresentation in offering memorandum

112. (1) If an offering memorandum contains a misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchases a security offered by the offering memorandum during the period of distribution has, without regard to whether the purchaser relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the issuer;
- (b) the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
- (c) every director of the issuer at the date of the offering memorandum; and
- (d) every person who signed the offering memorandum.

Right of action for rescission

(2) If an offering memorandum contains a misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchases a security offered by the offering memorandum during the period of distribution has a right of action for rescission against the issuer or the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made.

Election

(3) If the purchaser elects to exercise a right of action for rescission, the purchaser shall have no right of action for damages against a person referred to in paragraphs (1)(a) to (d).

Defence if purchaser has knowledge of misrepresentation

(4) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) if the person proves that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation.

Defence if offering memorandum sent without knowledge, consent or belief

(5) A person, other than the issuer and selling security holder, is not liable under subsection (1) if the person proves that

- (a) the offering memorandum was sent to the purchaser without the person's knowledge or consent and that, on becoming aware of its being sent, the person had promptly given reasonable notice to the issuer that it had been sent without the knowledge and consent of the person;
- (b) the person, on becoming aware of the misrepresentation in the offering memorandum, had withdrawn his or her consent to the offering memorandum and given reasonable notice to the issuer of the withdrawal and the reason for it; or
- (c) with respect to any part of the offering memorandum purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement or opinion of an expert, the person had no reasonable grounds to believe and did not believe that
 - (i) there had been a misrepresentation, or
 - (ii) the relevant part of the offering memorandum
 - (A) did not fairly represent the report, statement or opinion of the expert, or
 - (B) was not a fair copy of, or an extract from, the report, statement or opinion of the expert.

Defence for other material

(6) A person, other than the issuer and selling security holder, is not liable under subsection (1) with respect to any part of an offering memorandum not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert and not purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement or opinion of an expert, unless the person

- (a) failed to conduct a reasonable investigation to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation; or
- (b) believed that there had been a misrepresentation.

Defence for forward-looking information

(7) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (2) with respect to a misrepresentation in forward-looking information if,

- (a) the offering memorandum containing the forward-looking information also contains, proximate to the forward-looking information,
 - (i) reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward-looking information as such and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially

- from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
- (ii) a statement of the material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward-looking information; and
- (b) the person had a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in the forward-looking information.

Liability for forward-looking material

(8) Subsection (7) does not relieve a person of liability respecting forward-looking information in a financial statement required to be filed under Nunavut securities laws.

Limits on liability for damages

(9) In an action for damages under subsection (1), the defendant is not liable for any damages that the defendant proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the security resulting from the misrepresentation.

Joint and several liability

(10) All or any one or more of the persons specified in subsection (1) who are found to be liable or who accept liability under this section are jointly and severally liable.

Defence if no proceeds

(11) Despite subsection (10), an issuer, and every director of the issuer at the date of the offering memorandum who is not a selling security holder, is not liable if the issuer does not receive any proceeds from the distribution of the securities and the misrepresentation was not based on information provided by the issuer, unless the misrepresentation

- (a) was based on information previously publicly disclosed by the issuer;
- (b) was a misrepresentation at the time of its previous public disclosure; and
- (c) was not subsequently publicly corrected or superseded by the issuer before completion of the distribution of the securities being distributed.

Contributions

(12) A defendant who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless, in all the circumstances, the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable.

Limits on amount recoverable

(13) The amount recoverable by a plaintiff under this section must not exceed the price at which the securities purchased by the plaintiff were offered.

Rights not in derogation

(14) The right of action for rescission or damages conferred by this section is in addition to and without derogation from any other right the purchaser may have at law.

Records incorporated by reference

(15) If a misrepresentation is contained in a record incorporated by reference in, or deemed to be incorporated into, an offering memorandum, the misrepresentation is deemed to be contained in the offering memorandum.

Withdrawal from purchase under offering memorandum

113. A purchaser of a security to whom an offering memorandum is required to be sent may cancel the contract to purchase the security by sending written notice to the issuer by midnight on the second business day after the purchaser signs the agreement to purchase the securities.

Rights of action for rescission or damages for misrepresentation in take-over bid circular or issuer bid circular

114. (1) If a take-over bid circular, issuer bid circular, notice of change or notice of variation sent to the holder of securities of an offeree issuer or to the holders of securities convertible into securities of an offeree issuer under Nunavut securities laws contains a misrepresentation, a person to whom the circular or notice was sent has, without regard to whether the person relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for

- (a) damages against
 - (i) every person who was a director of the offeror at the time the circular or notice was signed,
 - (ii) every person, other than one referred to in subparagraph (i), who signed the certificate in the circular or notice, as the case may be,
 - (iii) every person whose consent in respect of the circular or notice has been filed under a requirement of the rules, but only with respect to reports, statements or opinions that have been made by the person, and
 - (iv) the offeror; or
- (b) rescission against the offeror.

Election

(2) If the person to whom the circular or notice was sent elects to exercise a right of action for rescission, the person shall have no right of action for damages against a person referred to in paragraph (1)(a).

Rights of action for damages for misrepresentation in circular

(3) If a directors' circular or an individual director's or officer's circular or a notice of change in respect of one of those circulars sent under Nunavut securities laws contains a misrepresentation, a person to whom the circular or notice was sent has, without regard to whether the person relied on the misrepresentation,

- (a) a right of action for damages against, in respect of a misrepresentation in a directors' circular or a notice of change to it,
 - (i) every officer of the offeror who signed the circular or notice,
 - (ii) every person who was a director of the offeror at the time the circular or notice was signed, if the board of directors approved the circular or notice, and
 - (iii) every person whose consent in respect of the circular or notice has been filed under a requirement of the rules, but only with respect to reports, statements or opinions that have been made by them; and
- (b) a right of action for damages against, in respect of a misrepresentation in an individual director's or officer's circular or a notice of change to it,
 - (i) every director or officer of the offeror who signed the circular or notice, and
 - (ii) every person whose consent in respect of the circular or notice has been filed under a requirement of the rules, but only with respect to reports, statements or opinions that have been made by them.

Defence if purchaser has knowledge of misrepresentation

(4) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (3) if the person proves that the person exercising the right of action had knowledge of the misrepresentation.

Defence if circular sent without knowledge, consent or belief of its being filed document

(5) A person, other than the offeror, is not liable under subsection (1) or (3) if the person proves that

- (a) the circular or notice was sent without the person's knowledge or consent and that, on becoming aware of that fact, the person had promptly given reasonable general notice that it was sent;
- (b) after the sending of the circular or notice and on becoming aware of any misrepresentation in the circular or notice, the person had withdrawn his or her consent to it and given reasonable general notice of the withdrawal and the reason for it;
- (c) with respect to any part of the circular or notice purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement or opinion of an expert, the person had no reasonable grounds to believe and did not believe that
 - (i) there had been a misrepresentation, or
 - (ii) the relevant part of the circular or notice
 - (A) did not fairly represent the report, statement or opinion of the expert, or

- (B) was not a fair copy of, or extract from, the report, statement or opinion of the expert;
- (d) with respect to any part of the circular or notice purporting to be made on the person's own authority as an expert or to be a copy of, or an extract from, the person's own report, statement or opinion as an expert, but that contained a misrepresentation attributable to a failure to fairly represent the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert,
 - (i) the person had, after reasonable investigation, reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that the relevant part of the circular or notice fairly represented the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert, or
 - (ii) on becoming aware that the relevant part of the circular or notice did not fairly represent the person's report, statement or opinion as an expert, the person had promptly given written notice to the Superintendent and given reasonable general notice that
 - (A) the person's report, statement or opinion was not fairly represented, and
 - (B) the person would not be responsible for that part of the circular or notice; or
- (e) with respect to a false statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in material that purports to be a copy of, or extract from, a public official document, it was a correct and fair representation of the statement or copy of, or extract from, the document, and the person had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that the statement was true.

Defence for expert material

(6) A person, other than the offeror, is not liable under subsection (1) or (3) with respect to any part of the circular or notice purporting to be made on the person's own authority as an expert or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, the person's own report, statement or opinion as an expert unless the person

- (a) failed to conduct a reasonable investigation to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation; or
- (b) believed there had been a misrepresentation.

Defence for other material

(7) A person, other than the offeror, is not liable under subsection (1) or (3) with respect to any part of the circular or notice not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert and not purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, statement or opinion of an expert unless the person

- (a) failed to conduct a reasonable investigation to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation; or
- (b) believed there had been a misrepresentation.

Defence for forward-looking information

(8) A person is not liable under subsection (1) or (3) with respect to a misrepresentation in forward-looking information if

- (a) the circular or notice containing the forward-looking information also contains, proximate to the forward-looking information,
 - (i) reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward-looking information as such and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
 - (ii) a statement of the material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward-looking information; and
- (b) the person had a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in the forward-looking information.

Liability for forward-looking information

(9) Subsection (8) does not relieve a person of liability respecting forward-looking information in a financial statement required to be filed under Nunavut securities laws or forward-looking information in a document released in connection with the issuance of securities pursuant to a securities exchange take-over bid.

Joint and several liability

(10) All or any one or more of the persons specified in paragraph (1)(a) or subsection (3) who are found to be liable or who accept liability under this section are jointly and severally liable.

Contributions

(11) A defendant who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless, in all the circumstances, the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable.

Limits on liability

(12) In an action for damages under subsection (1) or (3) based on a misrepresentation affecting a security offered by the offeror issuer in exchange for securities of the offeree issuer, the defendant is not liable for any damages that the defendant proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the security resulting from the misrepresentation.

Exchange bids

(13) For the purposes of this section, if, with respect to a bid that the rules permit to be made through the facilities of an exchange, the offeror is required to file a disclosure document with the exchange or to deliver a disclosure document to security holders of the offeree issuer, the disclosure document is deemed to be a take-over bid circular, issuer bid circular, notice of change or notice of variation, as the case may be, sent as required by Nunavut securities laws.

Rights not in derogation

(14) The right of action for rescission or damages conferred by this section is in addition to and without derogation from any other right available at law.

Records incorporated by reference

(15) If a misrepresentation is contained in a record incorporated by reference in, or deemed to be incorporated into, a circular or a notice of change or variation, the misrepresentation is deemed to be contained in the circular or the notice of change or variation.

Standard of reasonableness

115. In determining what constitutes reasonable investigation or reasonable grounds for belief for the purposes of sections 111, 112 and 114, the standard of reasonableness is that required of a prudent person in the circumstances of the particular case.

Right of action for failure to deliver prospectus, take-over bid circular or issuer bid circular

116. A person who is a purchaser of a security to whom a prospectus was required to be sent or delivered under Nunavut securities laws but which was not sent or delivered as required, or a person to whom a take-over bid circular, issuer bid circular, notice of change or notice of variation was required to be sent or delivered under Nunavut securities laws but which was not sent or delivered as required, has a right of action for damages or rescission against the dealer, offeror or other person, as the case may be, who failed to comply with the applicable requirement.

Right of action for failure to deliver offering memorandum

117. A person who is a purchaser of a security to whom an offering memorandum was required to be sent or delivered under Nunavut securities laws but which was not sent or delivered as required, has a right of action for damages or rescission against the issuer.

Right of action for failure to file prospectus

118. A person who is a purchaser of a security in respect of which a prospectus was required to be filed under Nunavut securities laws, but which was not filed as required, has a right of action for damages or rescission against the issuer or selling security holder.

Liability for insider trading

119. (1) Every person in a special relationship with a reporting issuer who contravenes subsection 155(1) is liable to compensate the other party to the transaction described in subsection 155(1) for damages as a result of the transaction, unless

- (a) the person in the special relationship with the reporting issuer proves that the person reasonably believed that the inside information had been generally disclosed; or

- (b) the inside information was known or ought reasonably to have been known to the other party to the transaction.

Liability for informing

(2) Every

- (a) reporting issuer,
- (b) person in a special relationship with a reporting issuer, or
- (c) person who proposes
 - (i) to make a take-over bid for the securities of a reporting issuer,
 - (ii) to become a party to an amalgamation, merger, arrangement, reorganization or similar transaction with a reporting issuer, or
 - (iii) to acquire a substantial portion of the property of a reporting issuer,

who informs another person of inside information relating to the reporting issuer, is liable to compensate any person who subsequently sells securities of the reporting issuer to, or purchases securities of the reporting issuer from, the person who received the inside information, unless

- (d) the person who informed the other person proves that the informing person reasonably believed the inside information had been generally disclosed,
- (e) the inside information was known or ought reasonably to have been known to the seller or purchaser, as the case may be,
- (f) in the case of an action against a reporting issuer or a person in a special relationship with the reporting issuer, the inside information was given in the necessary course of business, or
- (g) in the case of an action against a person described in subparagraph (c)(i), (ii) or (iii), the inside information was given in the necessary course of business to effect the take-over bid, amalgamation, merger, arrangement, reorganization, or similar transaction, or acquisition.

Liability for recommending

(3) Every reporting issuer and every person in a special relationship with a reporting issuer who contravenes subsection 155(4) is liable to compensate the person who received the recommendation or encouragement described in that subsection for damages as a result of the recommendation or encouragement unless

- (a) the person who recommended or encouraged the other person proves that, at the time of the making of the recommendation or giving of the encouragement described in subsection 155(4), the person who recommended or encouraged reasonably believed the inside information had been generally disclosed; or

- (b) the inside information was, at the time of the making of the recommendation or giving of encouragement, known or ought reasonably to have been known to the person who received the recommendation or encouragement described in subsection 155(4).

Liability for front running

(4) A person who knows of material order information and contravenes subsection 153(1) or (2) is liable to account to the person to whom the material order information relates for any benefit or advantage received or receivable by the first person by reason of the contravention.

Accountability of insiders, affiliates and associates

(5) Every person who is an insider, affiliate or associate of a reporting issuer who,

- (a) enters into a transaction described in subsection 155(1) with knowledge of inside information relating to the reporting issuer,
- (b) informs another person, other than in the necessary course of business, of inside information relating to the reporting issuer, or
- (c) recommends or encourages another person to enter into a transaction described in subsection 155(4) with knowledge of inside information relating to the reporting issuer, is accountable to the reporting issuer for any benefit or advantage received or receivable by the person as a result of the transaction, information provided, recommendation or encouragement, as the case may be, unless the person proves that they had reasonably believed that the inside information had been generally disclosed.

Joint and several liability

(6) If more than one person in a special relationship with a reporting issuer is liable under subsection (1), (2) or (3) as to the same transaction or series of transactions, their liability is joint and several.

Damages

(7) In assessing damages under subsection (1), (2) or (3), the court shall consider,

- (a) if the plaintiff is a purchaser, the price paid by the plaintiff for the security less the average market price of the security in the 10 trading days following general disclosure of the inside information, or
- (b) if the plaintiff is a seller, the average market price of the security in the 10 trading days following general disclosure of the inside information less the price received by the plaintiff for the security, but the court may instead consider such other measures of damages as may be relevant in the circumstances.

Court action on behalf of issuer

120. (1) On application by the Superintendent or by any person who was, at the time of a transaction referred to in subsection 119(1) or (2) or at any time of the making of the recommendation or giving of the encouragement referred to in subsection 119(3), or by any person who is, at the time of the application, a security holder of the reporting issuer, the Nunavut Court of Justice may, if satisfied that

- (a) the Superintendent or the applicant has reasonable grounds for believing that the reporting issuer has a cause of action under section 119, and
- (b) the reporting issuer has
 - (i) refused or failed to commence an action under subsection 119(5) within 60 days after receipt of a written request from the Superintendent or the applicant to do so, or
 - (ii) failed to prosecute diligently an action commenced by it under subsection 119(5), make an order, on any terms as to security for costs or otherwise that it considers appropriate, requiring the Superintendent or authorizing the person or the Superintendent to commence, commence and prosecute, or continue an action in the name of, and on behalf of, the reporting issuer, to enforce the liability created by subsection 119(5).

Costs incurred by directors

(2) If an action under subsection 119(5) is commenced, commenced and prosecuted, or continued by the directors of the reporting issuer, the Nunavut Court of Justice may order the reporting issuer to pay all costs properly incurred by the directors in commencing, commencing and prosecuting, or continuing the action, as the case may be, if it is satisfied that the action is in the best interests of the reporting issuer and its security holders.

Costs incurred by security holders

(3) If an action under subsection 119(5) is commenced, commenced and prosecuted, or continued by a person who is a security holder of the reporting issuer, the Nunavut Court of Justice may order the reporting issuer to pay all costs properly incurred by the security holder in commencing, commencing and prosecuting, or continuing the action, as the case may be, if it is satisfied that

- (a) the reporting issuer refused or failed to commence the action or having commenced it, failed to prosecute it diligently; and
- (b) the action is in the best interests of the reporting issuer and its security holders.

Costs incurred by Superintendent

(4) If an action under subsection 119(5) is commenced, commenced and prosecuted, or continued by the Superintendent, the Nunavut Court of Justice may order the reporting issuer to pay all costs properly incurred by the Superintendent in commencing, commencing and prosecuting, or continuing the action, as the case may be.

Best interests

(5) In determining whether an action or its continuance is in the best interests of a reporting issuer and its security holders, the Nunavut Court of Justice shall consider the relationship between the potential benefit to be derived from the action by the reporting issuer and its security holders, and the cost involved in the prosecution of the action.

Notice

(6) Notice of every application under subsection (1) must be sent to the Superintendent and the reporting issuer, and each of them may appear and be heard.

Order requiring action

(7) In every action commenced, commenced and prosecuted or continued by the Superintendent under this section, the reporting issuer shall

- (a) cooperate fully with the Superintendent in the commencement, commencement and prosecution, and prosecution or continuation of the action; and
- (b) make available to the Superintendent all records and other material or information relevant to the action and known to, or reasonably ascertainable by, the reporting issuer.

Limitation period

121. No action may be commenced to enforce a right created by this Part more than,

- (a) in the case of an action for rescission, 180 days after the date of the transaction giving rise to the cause of action; or
- (b) in the case of any action other than an action for rescission,
 - (i) 180 days after the plaintiff first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action, or
 - (ii) three years after the date of the transaction giving rise to the cause of action,whichever period expires first.

Liability for Secondary Market Disclosure

Right of action for damages for misrepresentation in document

124. (1) If a responsible issuer or a person with actual, implied or apparent authority to act on behalf of a responsible issuer releases a document that contains a misrepresentation, a person who acquires or disposes of the issuer's security during the period between the time when the document was released and the time when the misrepresentation contained in the document was publicly corrected has, without regard to whether the person relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the responsible issuer;
- (b) each director of the responsible issuer at the time the document was released;
- (c) each officer of the responsible issuer who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the release of the document;
- (d) each influential person, and each director and officer of an influential person, who knowingly influenced,
 - (i) the responsible issuer or any person acting on behalf of the responsible issuer to release the document, or
 - (ii) a director or officer of the responsible issuer to authorize, permit or acquiesce in the release of the document; and
- (e) each expert if
 - (i) the misrepresentation is also contained in a report, statement or opinion made by the expert,
 - (ii) the document includes, summarizes or quotes from the report, statement or opinion of the expert, and
 - (iii) in a case where the document was released by a person other than the expert, the expert consented in writing to the use of the report, statement or opinion in the document.

Right of action for damages for misrepresentation in public oral statement

(2) If a person with actual, implied or apparent authority to speak on behalf of a responsible issuer makes a public oral statement that relates to the business or affairs of the responsible issuer and that contains a misrepresentation, a person who acquires or disposes of the issuer's security during the period between the time when the public oral statement was made and the time when the misrepresentation contained in the public oral statement was publicly corrected has, without regard to whether the person relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the responsible issuer;
- (b) the person who made the public oral statement;
- (c) each director and officer of the responsible issuer who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the making of the public oral statement;
- (d) each influential person, and each director and officer of the influential person, who knowingly influenced
 - (i) the person who made the public oral statement to make the public oral statement, or
 - (ii) a director or officer of the responsible issuer to authorize, permit or acquiesce in the making of the public oral statement; and
- (e) each expert if

- (i) the misrepresentation is also contained in a report, statement or opinion made by the expert,
- (ii) the person making the public oral statement includes, summarizes or quotes from the report, statement or opinion of the expert, and
- (iii) in a case where the public oral statement was made by a person other than the expert, the expert consented in writing to the use of the report, statement or opinion in the public oral statement.

Right of action for damages for misrepresentation in document or public oral statement by influential person

(3) If an influential person or a person with actual, implied or apparent authority to act or to speak on behalf of the influential person releases a document or makes a public oral statement that relates to a responsible issuer and that contains a misrepresentation, a person who acquires or disposes of the issuer's security during the period between the time when the document was released or the public oral statement was made and the time when the misrepresentation contained in the document or public oral statement was publicly corrected has, without regard to whether the person relied on the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the responsible issuer, if a director or officer of the responsible issuer, or where the responsible issuer is an investment fund, if the investment fund manager, authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement;
- (b) the person who made the public oral statement;
- (c) each director and officer of the responsible issuer who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement;
- (d) the influential person;
- (e) each director and officer of the influential person who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement; and
- (f) each expert if
 - (i) the misrepresentation is also contained in a report, statement or opinion made by the expert,
 - (ii) the document or public oral statement includes, summarizes or quotes from the report, statement or opinion of the expert, and
 - (iii) in a case where the document was released or the public oral statement was made by a person other than the expert, the expert consented in writing to the use of the report, statement or opinion in the document or public oral statement.

Right of action for failure to make timely disclosure

(4) If a responsible issuer fails to make timely disclosure, a person who acquires or disposes of the issuer's security between the time when the material change was required to be disclosed in the manner required under Nunavut securities laws and the subsequent disclosure of the material change has, without regard to whether the person relied on the responsible issuer having complied with its disclosure requirements, a right of action for damages against

- (a) the responsible issuer;
- (b) each director and officer of the responsible issuer who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the failure to make timely disclosure; and
- (c) each influential person, and each director and officer of an influential person, who knowingly influenced
 - (i) the responsible issuer or any person acting on behalf of the responsible issuer in the failure to make timely disclosure, or
 - (ii) a director or officer of the responsible issuer to authorize, permit or acquiesce in the failure to make timely disclosure.

Liability of director or officer

(5) In an action under this section, a person who is a director or officer of an influential person is not liable in that capacity if the person is liable as a director or officer of the responsible issuer.

Multiple misrepresentation or instances of failure to make timely disclosure

- (6) In an action under this section,
- (a) multiple misrepresentations having common subject matter or content may, in the discretion of the court, be treated as a single misrepresentation; and
 - (b) multiple instances of failure to make timely disclosure of a material change or material changes concerning common subject matter may, in the discretion of the court, be treated as a single failure to make timely disclosure.

Apparent authority

(7) In an action under subsection (2) or (3), if the person who made the public oral statement had apparent authority, but not implied or actual authority, to speak on behalf of the issuer, no other person is liable with respect to any of the responsible issuer's securities that were acquired or disposed of before that other person became, or should reasonably have become, aware of the misrepresentation.

Defence of knowledge

125. (1) In an action under section 124 in relation to a misrepresentation in a document that is not a core document, or a misrepresentation in a public oral statement, a person is not liable, subject to subsection (2), unless the plaintiff proves that the person,

- (a) knew, at the time that the document was released or the public oral

- statement was made, that the document or public oral statement contained the misrepresentation;
- (b) at or before the time that the document was released or the public oral statement was made, deliberately avoided acquiring knowledge that the document or public oral statement contained the misrepresentation; or
 - (c) was, through action or failure to act, guilty of gross misconduct in connection with the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement that contained the misrepresentation.

Burden of proof

(2) A plaintiff is not required to prove any of the matters set out in subsection (1) in an action under section 124 in relation to an expert.

Defence to failure to make timely disclosure

(3) In an action under section 124 in relation to a failure to make timely disclosure, a person is not liable, subject to subsection (4), unless the plaintiff proves that the person

- (a) knew, at the time that the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred, of the change and that the change was a material change;
- (b) at the time or before the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred, deliberately avoided acquiring knowledge of the change or that the change was a material change; or
- (c) was, through action or failure to act, guilty of gross misconduct in connection with the failure to make timely disclosure.

Burden of proof

(4) A plaintiff is not required to prove any of the matters set out in subsection (3) in an action under section 124 in relation to

- (a) a responsible issuer;
- (b) an officer of a responsible issuer;
- (c) an investment fund manager; or
- (d) an officer of an investment fund manager.

Defence of knowledge

(5) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 in relation to a misrepresentation or a failure to make timely disclosure if that person proves that the plaintiff acquired or disposed of the issuer's security

- (a) with knowledge that the document or public oral statement contained a misrepresentation; or
- (b) with knowledge of the material change.

Defence of reasonable investigation and belief

(6) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 in relation to

- (a) a misrepresentation, if the person proves that

- (i) before the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement containing the misrepresentation, the person conducted or caused to be conducted a reasonable investigation, and
- (ii) at the time of the release of the document or the making of the public oral statement, the person had no reasonable grounds to believe that the document or public oral statement contained the misrepresentation; or
- (b) a failure to make timely disclosure, if the person proves that
 - (i) before the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred, the person conducted or caused to be conducted a reasonable investigation, and
 - (ii) the person had no reasonable grounds to believe that the failure to make timely disclosure would occur.

Determining whether reasonable investigation or gross misconduct

(7) In determining whether an investigation was reasonable under subsection (6), or whether any person is guilty of gross misconduct under subsection (1) or (3), the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including

- (a) the nature of the responsible issuer;
- (b) the knowledge, experience and function of the person;
- (c) the office held, if the person was an officer;
- (d) the presence or absence of another relationship with the responsible issuer, if the person was a director;
- (e) the existence, if any, and the nature of any system designed to ensure that the responsible issuer meets its continuous disclosure obligations;
- (f) the reasonableness of reliance by the person on the responsible issuer's disclosure compliance system, and on the responsible issuer's officers, employees and others whose duties would in the ordinary course have given them knowledge of the relevant facts;
- (g) the period within which disclosure was required to be made under the applicable law;
- (h) in respect of a report, statement or opinion of an expert, any professional standards applicable to the expert;
- (i) the extent to which the person knew, or should reasonably have known, the content and medium of dissemination of the document or public oral statement;
- (j) in the case of a misrepresentation, the role and responsibility of the person in the preparation and release of the document or the making of the public oral statement containing the misrepresentation or the ascertaining of the facts contained in that document or public oral statement; and
- (k) in the case of a failure to make timely disclosure, the role and responsibility of the person involved in a decision not to disclose the material change.

Confidential timely disclosure

(8) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 in respect of a failure to make timely disclosure if

- (a) the person proves that the material change was disclosed by the responsible issuer in a report provided on a confidential basis to the Superintendent under section 102;
- (b) the responsible issuer had a reasonable basis for making the disclosure on a confidential basis;
- (c) where the information contained in the report provided on a confidential basis remains material, disclosure of the material change was made public promptly when the basis for confidentiality ceased to exist;
- (d) the person or responsible issuer did not release a document or make a public oral statement that, due to the undisclosed material change, contained a misrepresentation; and
- (e) where the material change became publicly known in a manner other than the manner required under this Act, the responsible issuer promptly disclosed the material change in the manner required under this Act.

Defence for forward-looking information

(9) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 for a misrepresentation in forward-looking information if the person proves all of the following:

- (a) the document or public oral statement containing the forward-looking information contained, proximate to that information,
 - (i) reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward-looking information as such, and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
 - (ii) a statement of the material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward-looking information;
- (b) the person had a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in the forward-looking information.

Public oral statement containing forward-looking information

(10) The person is deemed to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (9)(a) with respect to a public oral statement containing forward-looking information, if the person who made the public oral statement

- (a) made a cautionary statement that the oral statement contains forward-looking information,
- (b) stated that

- (i) the actual results could differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
 - (ii) certain material factors or assumptions were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection as reflected in the forward-looking information, and
- (c) stated that additional information about
- (i) the material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward-looking information, and
 - (ii) the material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection as reflected in the forward-looking information,
- is contained in a readily available document or in a portion of such a document and has identified that document or that portion of the document.

Filed document deemed readily available

(11) For the purposes of paragraph (10)(c), a document filed with the Superintendent or otherwise generally disclosed is deemed to be readily available.

Liability for forward-looking information

(12) Subsection (9) does not relieve a person of liability respecting forward-looking information in a financial statement required to be filed under Nunavut securities laws or forward-looking information in a document released in connection with an initial public offering.

Defence for expert material

(13) A person, other than an expert, is not liable in an action under section 124 with respect to any part of a document or public oral statement that includes, summarizes or quotes from a report, statement or opinion made by the expert in respect of which the responsible issuer obtained the written consent of the expert to the use of the report, statement or opinion, if the consent had not been withdrawn in writing before the document was released or the public oral statement was made, if the person proves that

- (a) the person did not know and had no reasonable grounds to believe that there had been a misrepresentation in the part of the document or public oral statement made on the authority of the expert; and
- (b) the part of the document or oral public statement fairly represented the report, statement or opinion made by the expert.

Defence of expert

(14) An expert is not liable in an action under section 124 with respect to any part of a document or public oral statement that includes, summarizes or quotes from a report, statement or opinion made by the expert, if the expert proves that the written consent previously provided was withdrawn in writing before the document was released or the public oral statement was made.

Defence of lack of knowledge of release of documents

(15) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 in respect of a misrepresentation in a document, other than a document required to be filed with the Superintendent, if the person proves that, at the time of release of the document, the person did not know and had no reasonable grounds to believe that the document would be released.

Defence for filed documents

(16) A person is not liable in an action under section 124 for a misrepresentation in a document or a public oral statement, if the person proves that

- (a) the misrepresentation was also contained in a document filed by or on behalf of another person, other than the responsible issuer, with the Superintendent or any extra-territorial securities regulatory authority or an exchange, and was not corrected in another document filed by or on behalf of that other person with the Superintendent or the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority or exchange, before the release of the document or the public oral statement made by or on behalf of the responsible issuer;
- (b) the document or public oral statement contained a reference identifying the document that was the source of the misrepresentation; and
- (c) when the document was released or the public oral statement was made, the person did not know and had no reasonable grounds to believe that the document or public oral statement contained a misrepresentation.

Defence if lack of knowledge or consent

(17) A person, other than the responsible issuer, is not liable in an action under section 124 if the misrepresentation or failure to make timely disclosure was made without the knowledge or consent of the person and if, after the person became aware of the misrepresentation before it was corrected, or the failure to make timely disclosure before it was disclosed in the manner required under this Act,

- (a) the person promptly notified the directors of the responsible issuer of the misrepresentation or the failure to make timely disclosure; and
- (b) if no correction of the misrepresentation or no subsequent disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act was made by the responsible issuer within two business days after the notification under paragraph (a), the person, unless prohibited by law or by professional confidentiality rules, promptly and in writing notified the Superintendent of the misrepresentation or failure to make timely disclosure.

Damages

Assessment of damages for acquisition of securities

126. (1) Damages shall be assessed in favour of a person who acquires an issuer's securities after the release of a document or the making of a public oral statement containing a misrepresentation or after a failure to make timely disclosure as follows:

- (a) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person subsequently disposed of on or before the tenth trading day after the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, assessed damages shall equal the difference between the average price paid for those securities, including any commissions paid in respect of them, and the price received on the disposition of those securities, without deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition, calculated taking into account the result of hedging or other risk limitation transactions;
- (b) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person subsequently disposed of after the tenth trading day after the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, assessed damages shall equal the lesser of
 - (i) an amount equal to the difference between the average price paid for those securities, including any commissions paid in respect of them and the price received on the disposition of those securities, without deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition, calculated taking into account the result of hedging or other risk limitation transactions, and
 - (ii) an amount equal to the number of securities that the person disposed of, multiplied by the difference between the average price per security paid for those securities, including any commissions paid in respect of that disposition determined on a per security basis, and
 - (A) if the issuer's securities trade on a published market, the trading price of the issuer's securities on the principal market, as those terms are defined in the rules, for the 10 trading days following the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, or
 - (B) if there is no published market, the amount that the court considers just;
- (c) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person has not disposed of, assessed damages shall equal the number of securities acquired, multiplied by the difference between the average price per security paid for those securities, including any commissions paid in respect of them determined on a per security basis, and

- (i) if the issuer's securities trade on a published market, the trading price of the issuer's securities on the principal market, as those terms are defined in the rules, for the 10 trading days following the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, or
- (ii) if there is no published market, the amount that the court considers just.

Assessment of damages for disposition of securities

(2) Damages shall be assessed in favour of a person who disposed of securities after a document was released or a public oral statement made containing a misrepresentation or after a failure to make timely disclosure as follows:

- (a) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person subsequently acquired on or before the tenth trading day after the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, assessed damages shall equal the difference between the average price received on the disposition of those securities, deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition and the price paid for those securities, without including any commissions paid in respect of them, calculated taking into account the result of hedging or other risk limitation transactions;
- (b) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person subsequently acquired after the tenth trading day after the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, assessed damages shall equal the lesser of,
 - (i) an amount equal to the difference between the average price received on the disposition of those securities, deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition, and the price paid for those securities, without including any commissions paid in respect of them, calculated taking into account the result of hedging or other risk limitation transactions, and
 - (ii) an amount equal to the number of securities that the person disposed of, multiplied by the difference between the average price per security received upon the disposition of those securities, deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition determined on a per security basis, and
 - (A) if the issuer's securities trade on a published market, the trading price of the issuer's securities on the principal market, as those terms are defined in the rules, for the 10 trading days following the

- public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, or
- (B) if there is no published market, the amount that the court considers just;
- (c) in respect of any of the securities of the responsible issuer that the person has not acquired, assessed damages must equal the number of securities that the person disposed of, multiplied by the difference between the average price per security received on the disposition of those securities, deducting any commissions paid in respect of the disposition determined on a per security basis, and
- (i) if the issuer's securities trade on a published market, the trading price of the issuer's securities on the principal market, as those terms are defined in the rules, for the 10 trading days following the public correction of the misrepresentation or the disclosure of the material change in the manner required under this Act, or
 - (ii) if there is no published market, then the amount that the court considers just.

Unrelated change in market price

(3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), assessed damages shall not include any amount that the defendant proves is attributable to a change in the market price of securities that is unrelated to the misrepresentation or the failure to make timely disclosure.

Proportionate liability

127. (1) In an action under section 124, the court shall determine, in respect of each defendant found liable in the action, the defendant's responsibility for the damages assessed in favour of all plaintiffs in the action, and each such defendant is liable, subject to the limits set out in subsection 128(1), to the plaintiffs for only that portion of the aggregate amount of damages assessed in favour of the plaintiffs that corresponds to that defendant's responsibility for the damages.

Particular defendants

(2) Despite subsection (1), if in an action under section 124 in respect of a misrepresentation or a failure to make timely disclosure, a court determines that a particular defendant, other than the responsible issuer, authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the making of the misrepresentation or the failure to make timely disclosure while knowing it to be a misrepresentation or a failure to make timely disclosure, the whole amount of the damages assessed in the action may be recovered from that defendant.

Joint and several liability

(3) Each defendant in respect of whom the court has made a determination under subsection (2) is jointly and severally liable with each other defendant in respect of whom the court has made a determination under subsection (2).

Contribution

(4) Any defendant against whom recovery is obtained under subsection (2) is entitled to claim contribution from any other defendant who is found liable in the action.

Limits on damages

128. (1) Despite section 126, the damages payable by a person in an action under section 124 is the lesser of

- (a) the aggregate damages assessed against the person in the action; and
- (b) the liability limit for the person less the aggregate of all damages assessed after appeals, if any, against the person in all other actions brought under section 124 and under comparable provisions of extra-territorial securities laws in respect of that misrepresentation or failure to make timely disclosure, and less any amount paid in settlement of any such actions.

Limits not applicable

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person, other than the responsible issuer, if the plaintiff proves that the person

- (a) authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the making of the misrepresentation or the failure to make timely disclosure while knowing that it was a misrepresentation or a failure to make timely disclosure; or
- (b) influenced the making of the misrepresentation or the failure to make timely disclosure while knowing that it was a misrepresentation or a failure to make timely disclosure.

Procedural Matters

Leave to proceed

129. (1) No action may be commenced under section 124 without leave of the court granted upon application to the court with notice to each defendant.

When leave may be granted

- (2) The court shall grant leave only if it is satisfied that,
- (a) the action is brought in good faith; and
 - (b) there is a reasonable possibility that the action will be resolved at trial in favour of the plaintiff.

Filing affidavit

(3) On application under this section, the plaintiff and each defendant shall serve and file one or more affidavits setting forth the material facts upon which each intends to rely.

Examination on affidavit

(4) The maker of an affidavit may be examined on it in accordance with the Rules of the Nunavut Court of Justice.

Copies for Superintendent

(5) A copy of the application for leave to proceed and any affidavits filed with the court shall be sent to the Superintendent when filed.

News release and other notices

130. A person who has been granted leave to commence an action under section 124 shall

- (a) promptly issue a news release disclosing that leave has been granted to commence an action under section 124;
- (b) send a written notice to the Superintendent within seven days after leave is granted, together with a copy of the news release; and
- (c) send a copy of the statement of claim or other originating document to the Superintendent when filed.

Restriction on discontinuation, abandonment and settlement of action

131. (1) An action under section 124 shall not be discontinued, abandoned or settled without the approval of the court given on such terms as it considers appropriate including, without limitation, terms as to costs.

Court to consider other actions

(2) In determining whether to approve the settlement of the action, the court shall consider, among other things, whether there are any other actions outstanding under section 124 or under legislation in other Canadian jurisdictions in respect of the same misrepresentation or failure to make timely disclosure.

Costs

132. Despite any other Act, the prevailing party in an action under section 124 is entitled to costs determined by a court in accordance with the Rules of the Nunavut Court of Justice.

Interventions by Superintendent

133. The Superintendent may intervene in an action under section 124 and in an application for leave under section 129.

No derogation from other rights

134. The right of action for damages and the defences to an action under section 124 are in addition to and without derogation from any other rights or defences the plaintiff or defendant may have in an action brought otherwise than under this Part.

Limitation period

135. No action may be commenced under section 124,

- (a) in the case of a misrepresentation in a document, later than the

- earlier of
- (i) three years after the date on which the document containing the misrepresentation is first released, and
 - (ii) six months after the issuance of a news release disclosing that leave has been granted to commence an action under section 124 or under comparable legislation in another Canadian jurisdiction in respect of the same misrepresentation;
- (b) in the case of a misrepresentation in a public oral statement, later than the earlier of
- (i) three years after the date on which the public oral statement containing the misrepresentation is made, and
 - (ii) six months after the issuance of a news release disclosing that leave has been granted to commence an action under section 124 or under comparable legislation in another Canadian jurisdiction in respect of the same misrepresentation; and
- (c) in the case of a failure to make timely disclosure, later than the earlier of,
- (i) three years after the date on which the requisite disclosure was required to be made, and
 - (ii) six months after the issuance of a news release disclosing that leave has been granted to commence an action under section 124 or under comparable legislation in another Canadian jurisdiction in respect of the same failure to make timely disclosure.

INTER-JURISDICTIONAL CO-OPERATION

Delegation and acceptance of authority

136. (1) Subject to the rules, the Superintendent may, by order, for the purposes of this Part,

- (a) delegate any Nunavut authority to an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority; and
- (b) accept a delegation or other transfer of any extra-territorial authority from an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority.

Delegation by Superintendent

(2) The Superintendent shall not delegate any power, function or duty of the Superintendent under subsection (1), that is, or is intended to be, performed or exercised by the Superintendent under section 14, this Part, or section 169.

Subdelegation by Superintendent

137. (1) Subject to any restrictions or conditions imposed by an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority with respect to a delegation of extra-territorial authority to the Superintendent, the Superintendent may subdelegate that extra-territorial authority in the manner and to the extent that the Superintendent may delegate any Nunavut authority under section 14 or 75, or may otherwise delegate any Nunavut authority under Nunavut securities laws.

Subdelegation by extra-territorial securities regulatory authority

(2) Subject to any restrictions or conditions imposed by the Superintendent with respect to a delegation of Nunavut authority to an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority, nothing in this Part is to be construed as prohibiting the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority from subdelegating that Nunavut authority in the manner and to the extent that the extra-territorial securities regulatory authority may delegate its authority under the extra-territorial securities laws under which it operates.

Adoption or incorporation of extra-territorial securities laws

138. (1) Subject to the rules, the Superintendent may, by order, adopt or incorporate by reference as Nunavut securities laws all or any provisions of any extra-territorial securities laws of a jurisdiction to be applied to

- (a) a person or class of persons whose primary jurisdiction is that extra-territorial jurisdiction; or
- (b) trades or other activities involving a person or a class of persons referred to in paragraph (a).

Securities laws adopted or incorporated as amended from time to time

(2) If the Superintendent adopts or incorporates by reference an extra-territorial securities law under subsection (1), the Superintendent may adopt or incorporate it by reference as amended from time to time, whether before or after the adoption or incorporation by reference, and with the necessary changes.

Exercise of discretion, inter-jurisdictional reliance

139. (1) Subject to the rules, if the Superintendent is empowered to make a decision regarding a person, trade or security, the Superintendent may make a decision on the basis that the Superintendent considers that an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority has made a substantially similar decision regarding the person, trade or security.

Opportunity to be heard

(2) Despite any provision of this Act but subject to the rules, the Superintendent may make a decision referred to in subsection (1) without giving the person affected by the decision an opportunity to be heard.

Inter-jurisdictional agreements

140. The Superintendent may, with the approval of the Minister, enter into an agreement with one or more extra-territorial securities regulatory authorities with respect to this Part or to rules respecting extra-territorial securities laws which apply in Nunavut by operation of law.

PART 16

IMMUNITY FROM LEGAL ACTION AND LIMITATION PERIOD

Immunity from Legal Action

Immunity for compliance with securities laws

141. No person has any rights or remedies and no proceedings lie or shall be brought against any person for any act or omission of the last-mentioned person done or omitted as a result of complying with Nunavut securities laws.

Immunity for persons acting under Nunavut securities laws

142. No action or other proceeding for damages may be instituted against the Superintendent, an employee in the public service, an appointee or agent of the Superintendent, a delegate of the Superintendent, or a recognized entity acting under powers, functions or duties subdelegated by the Superintendent,

- (a) for any act done in good faith in the
 - (i) performance or intended performance of any duty under Nunavut securities laws, or
 - (ii) exercise or intended exercise of any power or function under Nunavut securities laws; or
- (b) for any neglect or default in the performance or exercise in good faith of the powers, functions or duties described in paragraph (a).

Immunity for persons acting under extra-territorial securities laws

143. No action or other proceeding for damages may be instituted against the Superintendent, an employee in the public service, an appointee or agent of the Superintendent, a delegate of the Superintendent, or a recognized entity acting under powers, functions or duties subdelegated by the Superintendent,

- (a) for any act done in good faith in the
 - (i) performance or intended performance of any duty under extra-territorial securities laws, or
 - (ii) exercise or intended exercise of any power or function under extra-territorial securities laws; or
- (b) for any neglect or default in the performance or exercise in good faith of the powers, functions or duties described in paragraph (a).

Other immunity for extra-territorial securities regulatory authorities

144. No action or other proceeding for damages may be instituted against an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority or any member, officer, employee, appointee or agent of that extra-territorial securities regulatory authority,

- (a) for any act done in good faith in Nunavut in the
 - (i) performance or intended performance of any duty under extra-territorial securities laws, or
 - (ii) exercise or intended exercise of any power or function under extra-territorial securities laws; or

- (b) for any neglect or default in the performance or exercise in good faith of the powers, functions or duties described in paragraph (a).

Limitation Period

Limitation period

145. Unless this Act provides otherwise, no proceeding under this Act shall be commenced in a court or before the Superintendent more than six years after the date of the occurrence of the last event on which the proceeding is based.

PART 17

PROHIBITIONS, DUTIES, OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Prohibitions

Misleading or untrue statement

146. (1) No person shall make a statement that the person knows or reasonably ought to know

- (a) in a material respect and at the time and in light of the circumstances in which the statement is made, is misleading or untrue or does not state a fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make the statement not misleading; and
- (b) would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of a security.

Defence

(2) Without limiting the availability of any other defences, no person is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) if the person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have known that the statement was false or misleading or that it omitted to state a fact that was required to be stated or that was necessary to make the statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Representations while involved in investor-relations activities and trading

147. (1) No person shall, while engaging in investor-relations activities or with the intention of effecting a trade,

- (a) represent that the person or another person will
 - (i) resell or repurchase a security, or
 - (ii) refund all or any of the purchase price of a security;
- (b) give an undertaking relating to the future value or price of a security;
- (c) except with the prior written permission of the Superintendent, make any representation
 - (i) that a security will be listed and posted for trading on an exchange or quoted on a quotation and trade reporting system, or

- (ii) that an application has been or will be made to list a security on an exchange or to quote the security on a quotation and trade reporting system, unless
 - (A) an application has been made to list or quote the securities being traded and securities of the same issuer are currently listed on an exchange or quoted on a quotation and trade reporting system, or
 - (B) the exchange or quotation and trade reporting system has granted approval to the listing or quoting of the securities, conditional or otherwise, or has consented to, or indicated that it does not object to, the representation; or
- (d) make a statement that the person knows or reasonably ought to know is a misrepresentation.

Exception

(2) Paragraph (1)(a) does not apply in respect of a security that carries or is accompanied by

- (a) an obligation of the issuer or the security to redeem or repurchase the security; or
- (b) a right of the owner of the security to require the issuer to redeem or repurchase the security.

Representations concerning market price

(3) No person shall represent that the person is offering to trade in a security

- (a) at the market price, or
- (b) at a price related to the market price,

unless the person reasonably believes that a market for the security exists that is not made, created or controlled by that person, the person's employer or an affiliate or by a person for whom the person is acting in the transaction.

Representations concerning registration

148. (1) No person shall represent that the person is registered under Nunavut securities laws unless

- (a) the representation is true; and
- (b) in making the representation, the person specifies the category of registration under the rules.

Statements concerning matters reasonable investor would consider important

(2) No person shall make a statement about something that a reasonable investor would consider important in deciding whether to enter into or maintain a trading or advising relationship with the person if the statement is untrue or omits information necessary to prevent the statement from being false or misleading in the circumstances in which it is made.

Representations concerning regulatory bodies

149. No person shall make any representation that the Superintendent, an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority, a delegate of the Superintendent, an employee in the public service acting under Nunavut securities laws or an appointee or agent of the Superintendent, has in any manner expressed an opinion or passed judgment on

- (a) the financial standing, fitness, or conduct of a registrant;
- (b) the merits of a security or of an issuer; or
- (c) the merits of the disclosure record of an issuer under Nunavut securities laws.

Engaging in unfair practice

150. (1) No person shall engage in an unfair practice

- (a) while engaging in investor-relations activities;
- (b) while advising in relation to the purchase or sale of a security; or
- (c) with the intention of effecting the purchase or sale of a security.

Definition of "unfair practice"

(2) In this section, "unfair practice" includes

- (a) putting unreasonable pressure on a person to purchase, hold or sell a security;
- (b) taking advantage of a person's
 - (i) inability or incapacity to reasonably protect the person's own interests because of physical or mental infirmity, ignorance, illiteracy or age, or
 - (ii) inability to understand the character, nature or the language of any matter relating to a decision to purchase, hold or sell a security; and
- (c) imposing terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements in respect of transactions that are harsh or oppressive.

False or misleading statements

151. (1) No person shall make a statement in any evidence or record provided to the Superintendent, an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority, a delegate of the Superintendent, an employee in the public service acting under Nunavut securities laws or an appointee or agent of the Superintendent that, in a material respect and at the time and in light of the circumstances in which the statement was made,

- (a) is false or misleading;
- (b) omits to state a fact that is required to be stated by Nunavut securities laws; or
- (c) omits to state a fact that is necessary to be stated so that the statement, information or record is not false or misleading.

Defence

(2) Without limiting the availability of other defences, no person is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) if the person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have known that the statement was false or misleading or that it omitted to state a fact that was required to be stated by Nunavut securities laws or that was necessary to be stated to make the statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Fraud and market manipulation

152. No person shall, directly or indirectly, engage in or participate in any act, practice or course of conduct relating to a security that the person knows or reasonably ought to know will

- (a) result in or contribute to a misleading appearance of trading activity in, or an artificial price for, a security; or
- (b) perpetrate a fraud on any person.

Front running

153. (1) No person who knows of material order information shall do, nor recommend or encourage another person to do, any of the following:

- (a) purchase or sell the securities to which the material order information relates;
- (b) acquire, dispose of, or exercise a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell the securities;
- (c) enter into a related financial instrument or acquire or dispose of rights or obligations under a related financial instrument; or
- (d) change that person's
 - (i) beneficial ownership of, or direct or indirect control or direction over,
 - (A) the securities, or
 - (B) a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell the securities, or
 - (ii) interest in, or rights or obligations associated with, a related financial instrument.

Informing

(2) No person who knows of material order information shall inform another person of that information, unless it is necessary in the course of the person's business.

Defence for front running

154. (1) A person does not contravene subsection 153(1) if, at the time of the transaction described in that subsection or at the time of the making of the recommendation or the giving of the encouragement described in that subsection, as the case may be, the person reasonably believed that the other party to the transaction or the person who received the recommendation or encouragement had knowledge of the material order information.

Defence for informing

(2) A person does not contravene subsection 153(2) if, at the time of the giving of the information described in that subsection, the person reasonably believed that the person informed of the material order information had knowledge of the material order information.

Defence for transaction by non-individual

(3) A person, other than an individual, who takes an action described in subsection 153(1) or (2) with knowledge of material order information does not contravene that subsection if

- (a) the person had knowledge of the material order information only because the material order information was known to one or more of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents;
- (b) the decision to act was made by one or more of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents and none of the individuals who participated in the decision had actual knowledge of the material order information; and
- (c) none of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents who had actual knowledge of the material order information had given any advice related to the action based on the actual knowledge, to the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents who made or participated in the decision to act.

Considerations relevant to proof of defence

(4) In determining if a person has established a defence under subsection (3), it will be relevant whether and to what extent the person has implemented and maintained reasonable policies and procedures to prevent contraventions of subsection 153(1) or (2).

Defence for automatic plans, legal obligations and agents

(5) A person who takes an action described in subsection 153(1) or (2) with knowledge of material order information does not contravene those subsections if

- (a) the person acted because of the person's participation in a written automatic dividend reinvestment plan or a written automatic purchase plan or another similar written automatic plan that the person entered into before having knowledge of the material order information;
- (b) the person acted under a written legal obligation to take the action and that obligation was entered into before the person acquired knowledge of the material order information; or
- (c) the person acted
 - (i) as agent for another person under specific unsolicited instructions given by that other person to take the specified action,
 - (ii) as agent for another person under specific solicited instructions given by that other person to take the specified action before the person who acted as agent had knowledge of that material order information,
 - (iii) as agent or trustee for another person because of that other person's participation in a written automatic dividend

- reinvestment plan or a written automatic purchase plan or another similar written automatic plan, or
- (iv) as agent or trustee for another person to fulfill in whole or in part a written legal obligation of that other person.

Inside information – trading

155. (1) No person who is in a special relationship with a reporting issuer and who knows of inside information relating to the reporting issuer shall

- (a) purchase or sell a security of the reporting issuer;
- (b) acquire, dispose of, or exercise a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell securities of the reporting issuer;
- (c) enter into a related financial instrument or acquire or dispose of rights or obligations under a related financial instrument; or
- (d) change that person's
 - (i) beneficial ownership of, or direct or indirect control or direction over,
 - (A) a security of the reporting issuer, or
 - (B) a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell securities of the reporting issuer, or
 - (ii) interest in, or rights or obligations associated with, a related financial instrument.

Inside information – informing or tipping others

(2) No person who is in a special relationship with a reporting issuer and who knows of inside information relating to the reporting issuer shall inform another person of inside information relating to the reporting issuer, unless it is necessary in the course of business.

Inside information – person proposing transactions

(3) Unless it is necessary to effect the transaction, no person shall inform another person of inside information relating to a reporting issuer, if the person

- (a) proposes to make a take-over bid for the reporting issuer;
- (b) proposes to become a party to an amalgamation, merger, arrangement, reorganization or similar transaction with the reporting issuer; or
- (c) proposes to acquire a substantial portion of the property of the reporting issuer.

Inside information – recommending or encouraging trading

(4) No reporting issuer or person who is in a special relationship with a reporting issuer and who knows of inside information relating to the reporting issuer shall recommend or encourage another person to

- (a) purchase or sell a security of the reporting issuer;
- (b) acquire, dispose of, or exercise a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell, securities of the reporting issuer;
- (c) enter into a related financial instrument or acquire or dispose of

- (d) rights or obligations under a related financial instrument; or change that person's
 - (i) beneficial ownership of, or direct or indirect control or direction over,
 - (A) a security of the reporting issuer, or
 - (B) a put or call option or other right or obligation to purchase or sell securities of the reporting issuer, or
 - (ii) interest in, or rights or obligations associated with, a related financial instrument.

Defence for trading

156. (1) A person does not contravene subsection 155(1) if at the time of the transaction described in that subsection the person reasonably believed that the other party to the transaction had knowledge of the inside information.

Defence for other inside information offences

(2) A person does not contravene subsection 155(2), (3) or (4) if, at the time of the giving of the information described in subsection 155(2) or (3) or at the time of the making of the recommendation or the giving of the encouragement described in subsection 155(4), as the case may be, the person reasonably believed that the person informed of the inside information or the person who received the recommendation or encouragement had knowledge of the inside information.

Defence for transaction by person other than individual

(3) A person, other than an individual, who enters into a transaction described in subsection 155(1) with knowledge of inside information does not contravene that subsection if

- (a) the person had knowledge of the inside information only because the inside information was known to one or more of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents;
- (b) the decision to enter into the transaction was made by one or more of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents and none of the individuals who participated in the decision had actual knowledge of the inside information; and
- (c) none of the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents who had actual knowledge of the inside information had given any advice related to the transaction based on that actual knowledge to the person's directors, officers, partners, employees or agents who made or participated in the decision to enter into the transaction.

(4) In determining if a person has established a defence under subsection (3), it will be relevant whether and to what extent the person has implemented and maintained reasonable policies and procedures to prevent contraventions of subsection 155(1).

Defence for automatic plans, legal obligations and agents

(5) A person who enters into a transaction as described in subsection 155(1) with knowledge of inside information does not contravene that subsection if

- (a) the person entered into the transaction because of the person's participation in a written automatic dividend reinvestment plan or a written automatic purchase plan or another similar written automatic plan that the person entered into before having knowledge of the inside information;
- (b) the person entered into the transaction under a written legal obligation to do so and that obligation was entered into before the person acquired knowledge of the inside information; or
- (c) the person entered into the transaction
 - (i) as agent for another person under specific unsolicited instructions given by that other person to enter into the specified transaction,
 - (ii) as agent for another person under specific solicited instructions given by that other person to enter into the specified transaction before the person who acted as agent had knowledge of that inside information,
 - (iii) as agent or trustee for another person because of that other person's participation in a written automatic dividend reinvestment plan, written automatic purchase plan or another similar written automatic plan, or
 - (iv) as agent or trustee for another person to fulfill in whole or in part a written legal obligation of that other person.

Obstruction of justice

157. (1) No person shall destroy, conceal, withhold or refuse to give any information or refuse to produce any record or thing reasonably required for a hearing, review, investigation, examination or inspection under this Act.

Actions prior to hearing

(2) A person contravenes subsection (1) if the person knows or reasonably should know that a hearing, review, investigation, examination or inspection is to be conducted and the person takes any action referred to in subsection (1) before the hearing, review, investigation, examination or inspection.

Obstruction

(3) No person shall hinder or interfere with the Superintendent, an extra-territorial securities regulatory authority or its delegate, a delegate of the Superintendent, an employee in the public service acting under Nunavut securities laws or an appointee or agent of the Superintendent, in the performance of a power, function or duty under this Act.

Calls to residences

158. (1) No person shall, for the purpose of trading in any security or in any class of securities,

- (a) call at any residence; or
- (b) telephone from within Nunavut to any residence within or outside of Nunavut.

Exception

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person calls at or telephones the residence
 - (a) of a close personal friend, a business associate or a client with whom or on whose behalf the person calling or telephoning has been in the habit of trading in securities; or
 - (b) of a person who has received a copy of a prospectus filed under this Act and who has requested that information respecting a security offered in the prospectus be provided to that person by the person calling or telephoning, if the person calling or telephoning refers only to the requested information respecting that security.

Deemed calls

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person is deemed to have called at or telephoned a residence if an officer, director, representative or agent of the person calls at or telephones the residence on the person's behalf.

Definition of "residence"

(4) In this section, "residence" includes any building or part of a building in which the occupant resides permanently or temporarily and any appurtenant premises.

Order to deliver advertising and sales literature

159. (1) Where the Superintendent is satisfied that a registrant's past conduct in connection with advertising and sales literature affords reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest to do so, the Superintendent may order that the registrant deliver to the Superintendent copies of all advertising and sales literature that the registrant proposes to use in connection with its business as a registrant.

Order before using advertising and sales literature

(2) On making an order under subsection (1), the Superintendent may order that the registrant deliver the advertising and sales literature to the Superintendent within a specified period before the registrant uses it.

Opportunity to be heard

(3) Before making an order under subsection (1), the Superintendent shall give the registrant an opportunity to be heard.

Request to modify advertising and sales literature

(4) Where a registrant has delivered advertising and sales literature to the Superintendent pursuant to an order made under subsection (1), the Superintendent may require the registrant to modify the advertising and sales literature before the registrant uses it.

Definitions

(5) In this section,

"advertising" includes television and radio commercials, newspaper and magazine advertisements, billboards, signs, displays and all other sales material generally disseminated through the communications media, including electronic mail, electronic bulletin boards and similar facilities; (publicité)

"sales literature" includes records, videotapes, audiotapes, discs, cassettes and similar material, written matter and all other material designed for use in presentation to a prospective purchaser, whether or not that material is given or shown to a prospective purchaser. (documentation commerciale)

Duties

Margin contracts

160. (1) Where a registered dealer has entered into a contract with a client to buy and carry on margin any securities of any issuer either in Canada or elsewhere, and where the dealer or a partner, director, officer or employee of the dealer, while the contract is still in effect, sells or causes to be sold securities of the same issuer for any account in which the dealer or a partner or director of the dealer has a direct or indirect interest, if the effect of the sale would, otherwise than unintentionally, be to reduce the amount of securities in the hands of the dealer or under the dealer's control in the ordinary course of business below the amount of securities that the dealer should be carrying for all clients, the contract with the client is, at the option of the client, voidable and the client may recover from the dealer all money paid with interest or securities deposited in respect of the contract.

Exercise of option

(2) The client may exercise an option under subsection (1) by sending a notice to that effect to the registered dealer.

Declaration about short position

161. A person who places an order for the sale of a security through a registered dealer acting on that person's behalf, and who

- (a) at the time of placing the order, does not own the security, or
- (b) if acting as agent, knows the principal does not own the security, shall, at the time of placing the order to sell, declare to the registered dealer that the person or principal, as the case may be, does not own the security.

Duty to comply with decisions

162. (1) A person to whom a decision of the Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent applies shall comply with the decision.

Duty to comply with undertakings

(2) A person who gives an undertaking to the Superintendent or a delegate of the Superintendent shall comply with the undertaking.

Shares in name of registrant or custodian not to be voted

163. (1) Subject to subsection (5), a voting security of an issuer that is registered in the name of

- (a) a registrant or the nominee of a registrant, or
- (b) a custodian or the nominee of a custodian, where that issuer is a mutual fund and a reporting issuer,

and that is not beneficially owned by the registrant or custodian, as the case may be, shall not be voted by the registrant or custodian at any meeting of security holders of the issuer.

Forwarding of material

(2) Subject to subsection (3), immediately after receipt of a copy of a notice of a meeting of security holders of an issuer, the registrant or custodian shall, where the name and address of the beneficial owner of securities registered in the name of the registrant or custodian are known, send or deliver to each beneficial owner of the security that is registered at the record date for notice of the meeting a copy of any notice, financial statement, information circular or other material.

Agreement to pay reasonable costs

(3) A registrant or custodian is not required to send or deliver the material required under subsection (2) unless the issuer or the beneficial owner of the securities has agreed to pay the reasonable costs to be incurred by the registrant or custodian in so doing.

Copies of material

(4) At the request of a registrant or custodian, the person sending material referred to in subsection (2) shall immediately provide to the registrant or custodian, at the sender's expense, the requisite number of copies of the material.

Voting of shares

(5) A registrant or custodian shall vote or give a proxy requiring a nominee to vote any voting securities referred to in subsection (1), in accordance with any written voting instructions received from the beneficial owner.

Proxies

(6) Where requested in writing by a beneficial owner, a registrant or custodian shall give to the beneficial owner or his nominee a proxy enabling the beneficial owner or his nominee to vote any voting securities referred to in subsection (1).

Definition of "custodian"

(7) In this section, "custodian" means a custodian of securities issued by a mutual fund held for the benefit of plan holders pursuant to a custodial agreement or other arrangement.

Offences and Penalties

General offences and penalties

164. (1) Every person who contravenes Nunavut securities laws is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $5 million or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years less one day, or to both.

Directors, officers and others who authorize

(2) If a person, other than an individual, commits an offence, whether or not in respect of that offence a charge has been laid, a finding of guilt has been made or a plea of guilty has been entered with respect to that person,

- (a) every director and every officer of the person who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the offence, and
- (b) every person, other than an officer or director of the person, who authorized or permitted the offence, is guilty of that offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $5 million or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years less one day, or to both.

Fine based on profit made or loss avoided

165. (1) Despite section 164, and in addition to any imprisonment that is or may be imposed under that section, if a person has contravened subsection 153(1) or (2) or subsection 155(1), (2), (3) or (4), the person is liable to a minimum fine equal to the profit made or loss avoided by any person by reason of the contravention, and a maximum fine equal to the greater of

- (a) $5 million; and
- (b) an amount equal to triple the profit made or loss avoided by any person by reason of the contravention.

Where section 164 continues to apply

(2) If it is not possible to determine the profit made or loss avoided by any person by reason of the contravention, subsection (1) does not apply but section 164 continues to apply.

Profit made and loss avoided

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), the amount of the profit made and loss avoided shall be determined in accordance with the rules.

Order for compensation or restitution

166. (1) If a person is convicted of an offence under Nunavut securities laws, the court imposing sentence may, in addition to any other penalty imposed on the person, order the person to compensate or make restitution to a person who has suffered a loss of personal property as a result of the offence in an amount, if the amount is readily ascertainable, not exceeding the difference between

- (a) the replacement value of the personal property as of the date the order is imposed; and
- (b) the value of any part of the personal property that is returned to that person as of the date it is returned.

Compensation or restitution to precede fine

(2) If

- (a) the court finds it appropriate in the circumstances to make an order of restitution or compensation,
- (b) the court is considering ordering the person to pay a fine, and
- (c) it appears to the court that the person would not have the means or ability to comply with both the order of restitution or compensation and the order to pay the fine, the court shall first make the order of restitution or compensation and may then consider whether and to what extent an order to pay a fine is appropriate in the circumstances.

Copy of order

(3) If a court makes an order of restitution or compensation, it shall cause a copy of the order to be sent to the aggrieved person to whom the restitution or compensation is ordered to be paid.

Additional orders

(4) If a person is convicted of an offence, the court imposing sentence may, in addition to any other penalty imposed on the person and in addition to any order under subsection (1), make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) that trading in or purchasing any securities by or of a person cease permanently or for such period as is specified in the order;
- (b) that the person resign one or more positions that the person holds as a director or officer of an issuer, a registrant, an investment fund manager, a promoter or a person involved in investor-relations activities;
- (c) that the person is prohibited from becoming or acting as a director or officer of an issuer, a registrant, an investment fund manager, a promoter or a person involved in investor-relations activities;
- (d) that the person disgorge to the Superintendent any amounts obtained or losses avoided by reason of the contravention.

Participation of plaintiffs

(5) A person is not entitled to participate in a proceeding in which an order may be made under subsection 166(1) solely on the basis that the person has a right of action against a defendant to the proceeding, or that the person may be entitled to receive an amount under the order.

Civil remedies

167. A civil remedy for an act or omission is not affected by reason only that an order under subsection 166(1) has been made in respect of that act or omission.

PART 18

REGULATIONS AND RULE-MAKING

Regulations

168. The Commissioner in Executive Council may make regulations

- (a) respecting the same subject matters in respect of which the Minister may make rules subject to such modifications as are considered necessary;
- (b) governing the procedures to be followed by the Minister in making, amending or repealing rules;
- (c) governing the publication requirements for rules, proposed rules or orders made under section 138;
- (d) amending or repealing a rule;
- (e) varying provisions of Nunavut securities laws as they apply to a person;
- (f) respecting the fees payable to the Superintendent for any service or function and respecting the refund of fees;
- (g) respecting fees and charges, or limits on the fees and charges, that may be imposed in respect of
 - (i) a person being investigated or whose financial affairs are being examined under this Act,
 - (ii) a person appointed under Nunavut securities laws, and
 - (iii) a market participant subject to a review under Nunavut securities laws;
- (h) respecting the administration, distribution and expenditure of disgorgement funds received by the Superintendent; and
- (i) respecting any matter considered advisable to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Rule-making authority

169. The Superintendent, with the approval of the Minister, may make rules in accordance with the regulations made under section 168 and the powers set out in the Schedule.

Scope of regulations and rules

170. A regulation or a rule may

- (a) prohibit, regulate, restrict, limit or control a person, action, activity or conduct;
- (b) adopt or incorporate, as amended from time to time, whether amended before or after the adoption or incorporation, with or without modification, any code, standard, procedure or guideline;

- (c) impose or provide for the imposition of terms, conditions, restrictions and requirements, or any of them, before, during or after an action, activity or conduct is taken, in addition to any other terms, conditions, restrictions and requirements that may be imposed by the Superintendent;
- (d) if circumstances warrant, have retroactive, retrospective or prospective effect;
- (e) be of general or specific application;
- (f) apply to classes, categories or subcategories of persons, securities, trades, transactions or other matters or things;
- (g) be limited as to time or place, or both; and
- (h) confer a discretionary power on the Superintendent.

Procedure for making rules

171. The Minister shall follow the requirements of the regulations made under section 168 respecting the procedure to be followed in making, amending or repealing rules, and in publishing rules.

Effect of rules

172. For the purposes of the Evidence Act, a rule must be treated as if it were a regulation.

Inconsistencies between rules and regulations

173. In the event of an inconsistency between a regulation made by the Commissioner in Executive Council under section 168 and a rule, the regulation prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

Decisions and rules not statutory instruments

174. The following are not statutory instruments for the purposes of the Statutory Instruments Act:

- (a) decisions of the Superintendent or of a delegate of the Superintendent;
- (b) rules made under section 169.

PART 19

TRANSITIONAL

Definition of "Registrar"

175. (1) In this Part, "Registrar" means the Registrar as defined in the former Act.

Revocation of appointment of Registrar

(2) The appointment of the Registrar in effect immediately before the coming into force of this section is revoked.

Decisions

176. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), any decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Registrar that was valid and of full force and effect immediately before the coming into force of this section,

- (a) continues, subject to paragraph (c), to be valid and of full force and effect;
- (b) is deemed to be the decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Superintendent;
- (c) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (d) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Registration exemptions

(2) An order, ruling or decision of the Registrar exempting a trade, intended trade, security or person from the requirement to be registered under the former Act that was valid and of full force and effect immediately before the coming into force of this section,

- (a) continues, subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), to be valid and of full force and effect;
- (b) is deemed to be an order of the Superintendent exempting the trade, intended trade, security or person from section 86;
- (c) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (d) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Prospectus exemptions

(3) An order, ruling or decision of the Registrar exempting a trade, intended trade, security or person from the requirement to file a prospectus or statement of material facts under the former Act that was valid and of full force and effect immediately before the coming into force of this section,

- (a) continues, subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), to be valid and of full force and effect;
- (b) is deemed to be an order of the Superintendent exempting the trade, intended trade, security or person from section 94;
- (c) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (d) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Documents

177. On the coming into force of this section, the documents, information, records and files of the Registrar become the documents, information, records and files of the Superintendent.

Proceedings

178. (1) On and after the coming into force of this section, any proceeding, hearing, matter or thing, other than an investigation, inquiry or examination commenced under the former Act by the Registrar, or any application for an exemption, order or ruling commenced under the former Act, that would have been dealt with by the Superintendent had it been commenced on or after the coming into force of this section, may be dealt with and completed by the Superintendent in accordance with this Act.

Authorization of Registrar

(2) Despite subsection (1), subsection 175(2) and section 176, the Superintendent may authorize the Registrar to deal with and complete any proceeding, hearing, matter or thing, other than an investigation, inquiry or examination that had been, commenced by the Registrar before the coming into force of this section.

Former law

(3) Any proceeding, hearing, matter or thing dealt with and completed by the Registrar under subsection (2), shall be dealt with and completed in accordance with the law as it existed immediately before the coming into force of this section, and as if the appointment of the Registrar had not been revoked.

Decisions

(4) Any decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Registrar made in accordance with subsection (2),

- (a) is deemed to be the decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Superintendent;
- (b) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (c) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Examinations or investigations

179. (1) On and after the coming into force of this section, any investigation, inquiry or examination commenced under the former Act by the Registrar or by a person to whom the power to make an investigation, inquiry or examination had been delegated by the Registrar, that would have been dealt with by the Superintendent under section 30 or by a person appointed by the Superintendent under section 30 had it been commenced on or after the coming into force of this section, may be dealt with and completed in accordance with this Act by the Superintendent or by a person appointed by the Superintendent under section 30.

Authorization of Registrar or person appointed by Registrar

(2) Despite subsection (1), subsection 175(2) and section 176, the Superintendent may authorize the Registrar, or a person to whom the power to make an investigation, inquiry or examination had been delegated by the Registrar under the former Act, to deal with and complete any investigation, inquiry or examination that had been commenced by the Registrar before the coming into force of this section.

Former law

(3) Any investigation, inquiry or examination dealt with and completed by a person authorized to do so under subsection (2), shall be dealt with and completed in accordance with the law as it existed immediately before the coming into force of this section.

Decisions

(4) Any decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Registrar, or of a person to whom the power to make an investigation, inquiry or examination has been delegated by the Registrar under the former Act, that relates to an investigation, inquiry or examination dealt with and completed under subsection (2),

- (a) is deemed to be the decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Superintendent;
- (b) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (c) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Inspections

180. (1) On and after the coming into force of this section, any examination commenced under the former Act by the Registrar or by a representative of the Registrar that would be dealt with by the Superintendent under section 85 or by a person appointed by the Superintendent under section 85, had it been commenced on or after the coming into force of this section, may be dealt with and completed in accordance with this Act by the Superintendent or by a person appointed by the Superintendent under section 85.

Authorization of Registrar or person appointed by Registrar

(2) Despite subsection (1), subsection 175(2) and section 176, the Superintendent may authorize the Registrar, or a representative of the Registrar, to deal with and complete any examination commenced before the coming into force of this section.

Former law

(3) Any examination dealt with and completed by a person authorized to do so under subsection (2) shall be dealt with and completed in accordance with the law as it existed immediately before the coming into force of this section.

Decisions

(4) Any decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Registrar, or of a representative of the Registrar that relates to an examination dealt with and completed under subsection (2),

- (a) is deemed to be the decision, ruling, order, determination or direction of the Superintendent;
- (b) may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent; and
- (c) may be enforced in the same manner as a decision made by the Superintendent under this Act.

Registrations

181. (1) A registration granted under the former Act that is valid and subsisting immediately before the coming into force of this section is deemed to have been granted under this Act.

Suspended registrations

(2) A registration granted and suspended under the former Act and that had continued to be suspended under the former Act immediately before the coming into force of this section is deemed to have been granted and suspended under this Act.

Same category of registration

(3) A person whose registration is deemed under subsection (1) or (2) to have been granted under this Act and who had been registered under the former Act immediately before the coming into force of this section, is deemed to be registered under this Act in the same category of registration that the person had been classified into under the former Act.

Individual representatives

(4) An individual whose registration is deemed under subsection (1) or (2) to have been granted under this Act who had been registered as a representative of a dealer or adviser immediately before the coming into force of this section, is deemed to be registered as a representative of that dealer or adviser under this Act in the same category of registration that the individual had been classified into under the former Act.

Same terms, conditions and restrictions

(5) A registration deemed under subsection (1) or (2) to have been granted under this Act is, in addition to the terms, conditions, restrictions or requirements to which it is subject under this Act, subject to the terms, conditions or restrictions to which it had been subject immediately before the coming into force of this section, and those terms, conditions or restrictions may be varied or revoked by the Superintendent.

Same expiry date

(6) A registration deemed under subsection (1) or (2) to have been granted under this Act expires on the date it would have expired under the former Act.

Suspension, cancellation or surrender

(7) A registration deemed under subsection (1) to have been granted under this Act is valid until it expires or is suspended or terminated under this Act, or until the Superintendent accepts the surrender of the registration under this Act, whichever first occurs, and the registration may be amended in accordance with this Act.

Suspended registration

(8) A registration deemed under subsection (2) to have been granted and suspended under this Act continues to be suspended for the period for which it would have been suspended under the former Act, and on its reinstatement in accordance with this Act, the registration

- (a) is valid until it expires or until it is suspended or terminated under this Act, or until the Superintendent accepts the surrender of the registration under this Act, whichever first occurs; and
- (b) may be amended in accordance with this Act.

Applications for registration

(9) On and after the coming into force of this section, any application for registration commenced under the former Act shall be dealt with and completed by the Superintendent in accordance with this Act.

Prospectus receipts

182. (1) A document or receipt issued to a person under subsection 27(3) of the former Act that had been in effect immediately before the coming into force of this section, is deemed to be a receipt issued to the person under section 100 for the prospectus in respect of which the receipt had been issued under the former Act, and the prospectus is deemed to have been filed under this Act in accordance with Part 9.

Deemed compliance

(2) A person to whom a document or receipt for a prospectus is deemed under subsection (1) to have been issued under this Act is deemed to have complied with section 94 in relation to the securities in respect of which the prospectus had been filed without having filed a preliminary prospectus or having obtained a receipt for it under this Act, and this Act, other than the rules respecting the lapse date for a prospectus, applies to any distribution of the securities under the prospectus on or after the coming into force of this section.

Amended prospectus

(3) An amended prospectus that had been filed under the former Act in respect of a prospectus that is deemed under subsection (1) to have been filed under this Act is, on the coming into force of this section, deemed to be an amendment to the prospectus and to have been filed under this Act.

Incomplete filings

(4) On and after the coming into force of this section, any filing of a preliminary prospectus or a prospectus that is commenced under the former Act and that has not been dealt with and completed under the former Act, may be dealt with and completed by the Superintendent in accordance with this Act as though a preliminary prospectus or a prospectus, as the case may be, had been filed with the Superintendent under Part 9.

PART 20

CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

Business Corporations Act

183. (1) The Business Corporations Act is amended by this section.

(2) Section 1 is amended by
