

HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

R-001-2005

Registered with the Registrar of Regulations

2005-01-11

HUMAN RIGHTS REGULATIONS

The Commissioner in Executive Council, under section 47 of the Human Rights Act and every enabling power, makes the Human Rights Regulations.

1. For the purposes of section 29 of the Act, a hearing shall be commenced within two years.
2. Despite section 1, the two year deadline for the commencement of hearings may be extended by the Tribunal if the extension will not substantially prejudice any person and
 - (a) the parties provide written notice of their consent to the extension; or
 - (b) the Tribunal finds that the request for an extension is unavoidable or otherwise made in good faith.